Background Information and Statutory Authority:

Goal 5: The Regulations Governing the Review and Approval of Education Programs in Virginia set forth the requirements for the accreditation and approval of programs preparing teachers, administrators, and other instructional personnel requiring licensure. These regulations require colleges and universities to report partnerships and collaborations based on PreK-12 school needs as one accountability measure for programs preparing instructional personnel, further ensuring educational quality for Virginia public school students.

Thirty-seven institutions of higher education in Virginia have approved programs for the preparation of instructional personnel. Nineteen of the 37 institutions also have approved programs for the preparation of administrative and supervisory PreK-12 personnel.

Section 8VAC20-542-40. Standards for biennial approval of education programs of the Regulations Governing the Review and Approval of Education Programs in Virginia (8VAC20-542-10 et seq.), effective September 21, 2007, and amended January 19, 2011, require that approved education programs in Virginia shall have national accreditation or be accredited by a process approved by the Board of Education and demonstrate achievement biennially of the following accountability measures:

1. Candidate progress and performance on prescribed Board of Education licensure assessments. Candidate passing rates, reported by percentages, shall not fall below 70 percent biennially for individuals completing and exiting the program. Achievement of an 80 percent biennial passing rate shall be required by July 1, 2010. Candidates completing a program shall have successfully completed all coursework, required assessments, including those prescribed by the Board of Education, and supervised student teaching or internship. Candidates exiting a program shall have successfully completed all coursework, regardless of whether the individuals attempted, passed, or failed required assessments, including those prescribed by the Board of Education, and/or who may not have completed supervised student teaching or required internship.
2. Candidate progress and performance on an assessment of basic skills as prescribed by the Board of Education for individuals seeking entry into an approved education preparation program.
3. Structured and integrated field experiences to include student teaching requirements.
4. Evidence of opportunities for candidates to participate in diverse school settings that provide experiences with populations that include racial, economic, linguistic, and ethnic diversity throughout the program experiences.
5. Evidence of contributions to PreK-12 student achievement by candidates completing the program.
6. Evidence of employer job satisfaction with candidates completing the program.

7. Partnerships and collaborations based on PreK-12 school needs. Indicators of the achievement of this standard shall include the following:
  - a. Documented evidence that the education program has established partnerships reflecting collaboratively designed program descriptions based on identified needs of the PreK-12 community.
  - b. Documented evidence that the administration and supervision program collaborates with partnering schools to identify and select candidates for school leadership programs who meet local needs, demonstrate both potential for and interest in school leadership, and meet the qualifications for admission to advanced programs.

The biennial data (item 1 above) and certification that items 2-6 have been met will be submitted by institutions of higher education in 2013. The established timeline requires that the seventh measure on “partnerships and collaborations based on PreK-12 school needs” is to be reviewed and approved by December 2012.

Summary of Important Issues:

In August 2012, each institution offering approved education programs in Virginia submitted to the Department of Education a report documenting partnerships and collaborations based on PreK-12 school needs for each program (endorsement) area offered. The institutions reported that they are engaged in multiple partnerships and collaborations with educational, governmental, professional, and community entities as well as with school divisions, private schools, parents, and PreK-12 students. Attached is a summary of the partnerships and collaborations.

Approved Programs (Excluding Administration and Supervision)

Each of the 37 institutions of higher education offering approved programs submitted evidence that they had established partnerships and collaborations in the following categories:

1. Field experience: The partnerships and collaborations address experiences, such as internships, practica, clinical experience, student teaching, field placements, mentors for teachers, and tutoring PreK-12 students.
2. Professional development: The partnerships and collaborations include staff development, research grants, workshops, training, conferences, best practices, strategy and method development, curriculum development, course offerings, and career development.
3. Community outreach activities: The partnerships and collaborations include after-school and summer programs and camps, field trips, mentors for PreK-12 students, educational fairs, enrichment programs, cultural experiences and exchange, college visitations and transition, assessments and screening, and other extracurricular activities.

Administration and Supervision Programs

The 19 institutions of higher education offering administration and supervision programs submitted evidence that they had established partnerships and collaborations in the following areas:

1. Identifying, screening, and recruiting potential school leaders;
2. Preparing, training, and mentoring school leaders;
3. Providing professional development for school leaders; and
4. Offering internships, practica, and field experiences in school leadership.

On September 24, 2012, the Advisory Board on Teacher Education and Licensure recommended that the Board of Education approve the accountability measurement of partnerships and collaborations based on PreK-12 school needs required by the Regulations Governing the Review and Approval of Education Programs in Virginia for each of the 37 institutions of higher education offering approved programs.

Impact on Fiscal and Human Resources:

There is minimum impact on resources.

Timetable for Further Review/Action:

Upon approval, the Department of Education will notify the institutions of higher education of the action of the Board and post the partnerships and collaborations on its Web site.

Superintendent's Recommendations:

1. The Superintendent of Public Instruction recommends that the Board of Education approve the Advisory Board on Teacher Education and Licensure's recommendation to approve the accountability measurement of partnerships and collaborations based on PreK-12 school needs required by the Regulations Governing the Review and Approval of Education Programs in Virginia for The College of William and Mary.
2. The Superintendent of Public Instruction recommends that the Board of Education approve the Advisory Board on Teacher Education and Licensure's recommendation to approve the accountability measurement of partnerships and collaborations based on PreK-12 school needs required by the Regulations Governing the Review and Approval of Education Programs in Virginia for Old Dominion University.
3. The Superintendent of Public Instruction recommends that the Board of Education approve the Advisory Board on Teacher Education and Licensure's recommendation to approve the accountability measurement of partnerships and collaborations based on PreK-12 school needs required by the Regulations Governing the Review and Approval of Education Programs in Virginia for the University of Virginia and the University of Virginia's College at Wise.

4. The Superintendent of Public Instruction recommends that the Board of Education approve the Advisory Board on Teacher Education and Licensure's recommendation to approve the accountability measurement of partnerships and collaborations based on PreK-12 school needs required by the Regulations Governing the Review and Approval of Education Programs in Virginia for all other colleges and universities with approved programs.

Executive Summary

Introduction

There are 37 institutions of higher education in Virginia with approved programs for the preparation of PreK-12 instructional personnel. Nineteen of the 37 institutions also have approved programs for the preparation of administrative and supervisory PreK-12 personnel. (Reference Table 1.)

The review and approval of programs for the preparation of professional school personnel are a cooperative responsibility of institutions of higher education, school divisions, and the Department of Education. Programs are reviewed biennially and must demonstrate achievement of the accountability measures set forth in the Regulations Governing the Review and Approval of Education Programs in Virginia (8VAC20-542-10 et seq.), effective September 21, 2007, and amended January 19, 2011.

This report specifically addresses the progress of the institutions of higher education in achieving accountability measures regarding partnerships and collaborations based on PreK-12 school needs, (i.e., measures 7.a and 7.b.), as part of the biennial review administered during the 2011-2013 time period.

Part 1 – Education Programs - Accountability Measure 7.a

Approved education programs in Virginia shall demonstrate achievement of partnerships and collaborations by providing documented evidence that the education program has established partnerships reflecting collaboratively designed program descriptions based on identified needs of the PreK-12 community (8VAC20-542-40.7.a).

Summary Review of Results:

In August 2012, each of the 37 institutions of higher education electronically submitted evidence to the Virginia Department of Education that they had established partnerships and collaborations. The following information was provided for each of the partnerships and collaborations: name, description, PreK-12 school needs addressed, partners and collaborators, agreement type, and participating content area approved program(s). (Refer to the survey instrument in the appendices, “Part 1: Education Programs” and “Part 2: Education Programs Matrix.”)

Based on the documents submitted by the institutions, each of the institutions are engaged in multiple partnerships and collaborations with educational, governmental, professional, and social entities as well as with school divisions, private schools, parents, and PreK-12 students.

The types of partnerships and collaborations fall into the following three general categories:

- 1) Field experience – The partnerships and collaborations (PCs) address the identified needs of the PreK-12 community via such activities as internships, practica, clinical experience, student teaching, field placements, mentors for teachers, and tutoring PreK-12 students.
- 2) Professional development – The PCs address the identified needs of the PreK-12 community via staff development, research grants, workshops, training, conferences, best practices, strategy and method development, curriculum development, course offerings, and career development.
- 3) Community outreach activities – The PCs address the identified needs of the PreK-12 community via after school and summer programs and camps, field trips, mentors for PreK-12 students, educational fairs, enrichment programs, cultural experiences and exchange, college visitations and transition, assessments and screening, and other extracurricular activities.

There were a total of 954 partnerships and collaborations identified by the institutions. Approximately, 44 percent were in the field experience category; 41 percent were in the professional development category; and 15 percent were in the outreach activities category.

All of the institutions had at least one partnership and collaboration per each of their content area approved teaching program. In addition, 90 percent of all of the content area approved programs are engaged in two or more partnerships and collaborations. (Reference Table 1.)

Part 2 – Administration and Supervision Programs - Accountability Measure 7.b

Approved education programs in Virginia shall demonstrate achievement of partnerships and collaborations by providing documented evidence that the administration and supervision program collaborates with partnering schools to identify and select candidates for school leadership programs who meet local needs, demonstrate both potential for and interest in school leadership, and meet the qualifications for admission to advanced programs (8VAC20-542-40.7.b).

Summary Review of Results:

In August 2012, each of the 19 institutions of higher education that offer an administration and supervision program electronically submitted evidence to the Virginia Department of Education that they had established partnerships and collaborations. The following information was provided for each of the partnerships and collaborations: name, description, school leadership needs addressed, partners and collaborators, and agreement type. (Refer to the survey instrument in the appendices, “Part 3: Administration and Supervision Programs.”)

The types of partnerships and collaborations identified by the institutions were inclusive of:

- identifying, screening, and recruiting potential school leaders;
- preparing, training, and mentoring school leaders;
- providing professional development for school leaders; and
- offering internships, practica, and field experiences in school leadership.

Overall, based on the documents submitted by the institutions:

- 93 partnerships and collaborations are identified.
- Each of the institutions is engaged in at least one partnership and collaboration.
- 15 out of 19 of the institutions are engaged in more than one partnership and collaboration.

| 1.     | MidValley Consortium for Teacher Education              | The MidValley Consortium for Teacher Education was formed in 1989 and has trained over 1,000 teachers to be clinical faculty, with approximately 650 active clinical faculty. Two all-day training sessions are held in the fall and spring with about 45 PreK-12 teachers in attendance at each training session.  | The Consortium meets the identified needs of the PreK-12 community by developing a cadre of faculty who are trained to become exemplary role models of effective teaching and mentors for their student teachers. Faculty also develop leadership abilities and facilitate greater cooperation and communication among all teachers.   | The following institutions of higher education (IHE) are members: Bridgewater College, Eastern Mennonite University, James Madison University, and Mary Baldwin College.The following public school systems are members: Augusta County, Harrisonburg City, Page County, Rockingham County, Shenandoah County, Staunton City, and Waynesboro City. | Yes  |
| 2.     | Pre-service Clinical Experience - Student Teaching      | As the final clinical experience, pre-service teachers are placed in local school systems for the entire semester. They are allowed to assume complete responsibility for the classroom during this time and engage in all activities related to teaching in the school community under the supervision of the supervising classroom teacher and a college supervisor who makes regular observational visits. | This collaboration meets the needs of the PreK-12 community by providing the opportunity for the classroom teacher to interact with the student teacher to discuss current/new instructional methodologies being taught at the college and new research the student teacher has read about/done. The student teacher also provides assistance to the classroom teacher to enhance student learning and works with students in various group configurations to promote further student learning. This partnership also prepares the student teacher to become a potential employee with knowledge and skills needed in that particular school system. | Student Teaching takes place in the following school systems: Augusta County, Harrisonburg City, Page County, Rockingham County, Shenandoah County, Staunton City, and Waynesboro City.  | No   |

| 3.     | Pre-service Clinical Experience - Three-Week Practicum in Current Teaching Techniques | As an all day pre-student teaching experience, pre-service teachers are placed in local school systems for three weeks during the interterm for a total immersion into the school environment. Emphasis is placed on observation skills, modeling of desired teacher behaviors, and the development of two lesson presentations. This experience takes place in a collaborative manner with the classroom teacher and under the supervision of the college professor.  | This partnership meets the needs of the PreK-12 community in much the same way as the student teaching experience but for a shorter period. The practicum pre-service teacher has the opportunity to discuss and be exposed to current teachings and methodologies. The practicum student also is able to assist the teacher in a variety of ways to enhance student learning while learning valuable skills himself/herself. This experience is valuable in that the practicum student will be a better student teacher and more effectively affect student learning. | The experience takes place in one of the following public school systems: Augusta County, Harrisonburg City, Rockingham County and Shenandoah County.   | No   |
| 4.     | Pre-service Field Experience for Elementary and Secondary Curriculum - 10 clock hours | This is a semester long field experience (8 times during the 14 week semester) in which local content teachers serve as mentors and content-specialist instructors for Bridgewater secondary and elementary education candidates. Emphasis is on lesson design, assessment planning, teaching with technology integration, and reflection on PreK-12 student learning. Bridgewater College candidates are placed in a classroom that will become their student teaching placement in order to build a working relationship with the PreK-12 practitioner and the PreK-12 students. | This partnership links the PreK-12 community toward the improvement of PreK-12 student learning by allowing the PreK-12 practitioner the opportunity to mentor and shape effective lesson planning, direct pedagogy, and efficient and effective learning environments. By placing the Bridgewater College candidate in the class in which (s)he will student teach, the PreK-12 practitioner becomes a content-specialist instructor and the Bridgewater College candidate enters student teaching better prepared to address student learning.                       | This experience takes place in one of the following public school systems: Augusta County, Harrisonburg City, Rockingham County Public, Shenandoah County.                                    | No   |
| 5.     | Pre-service Field Experience for Classroom Management - 20 clock hours                | This field experience takes place in PreK-12 classrooms. The student is a participant observer in the classroom to observe and to learn exemplary classroom management strategies from the teacher and to participate in various group configurations to practice the implementation of management strategies. Discussions with the teacher concerning management strategies occur. Related readings and a reflective journal also are requirements of this field experience.  | This partnership meets the needs of the PreK-12 community by providing assistance to the classroom teacher in a variety of ways that affect student learning.  | This experience takes place in the following public school systems: Augusta County, Harrisonburg City, Page County, Rockingham County, Shenandoah County, Staunton City, and Waynesboro City. | No   |

| 6.     | Pre-service Elementary Field Experience for Reading - 40 clock hours                                  | This field experience takes place in a first grade after-school tutoring program with an emphasis on literacy activities. The elementary licensure-tract student is an active participant in the classroom to observe and to tutor emergent readers, to learn to analyze reading assessments, and to write prescribed lesson plans for the tutoring session. Journals and directed reflections are required for this field experience. The student is required to provide documentation of student learning. | This partnership meets the need of the PreK-6 community by tutoring emergent readers and students reading below grade level to improve their reading skills. The elementary licensure-tract students are in an after-school reading tutoring program at a school where many of the students have been identified as needing reading assistance. The students go to the school twice a week during the semester. Helping students to improve their reading skills will directly impact their future learning and interest in learning. | This experience takes place in the Rockingham County Public School system.  | No   |
| 7.     | Pre-service Secondary Field Experience for Reading - 20 clock hours                                   | This field experience takes place in grades 6-12 classrooms with an emphasis on literacy activities. The PreK-12 and secondary licensure-tract students are involved in a variety of literacy activities in the content areas. Journals and directed reflections are required for this field experience.   | This partnership meets the needs of the 6-12 community by tutoring emergent readers and below reading grade level students to improve their reading skills. The students go to the school once a week during the semester. Helping students to improve their reading skills will directly impact their future learning and interest in learning.  | This experiences takes place in the following public school systems: Harrisonburg City and Rockingham County.           | No   |
| 8.     | Pre-service Field Experience for Working with Diverse Children with Exceptionalities - 10 clock hours | This field experience takes place in PreK-12 classrooms with an emphasis on pre-service teachers as participant observers working with public school children identified as having diverse cognitive, affective, behavioral, and social needs based on learning disabilities, giftedness, multicultural issues, and language differences. Journals, directed reflections, and end-of-course classroom presentations on the experience are required.  | This partnership meets the needs of the PreK-12 community by providing assistance to the classroom teacher in a variety of ways that affect student learning. The students in these identified classrooms are able to receive additional attention to improve identified special needs. Also, their self-esteem is improved by having a college student willing to work and interact with them.   | This experiences takes place in one of the following public school systems: Harrisonburg City, or Rockingham County.    | No   |

| 11.    | Bridgewater College Teacher Education Technology Committee (TETC) - Subcommittee of Committee on Teacher Education | This subcommittee continues to be a technology task force whose purpose is to help re-vision the technology skills with which pre-service teachers should exit Bridgewater College's Teacher Education Program.  | The subcommittee meets the needs of the PreK-12 community by training future teachers to become producers of technologically enhanced learning rather than just users of technology. Curriculum and technology skills assessed and designed by this committee will enhance Bridgewater College candidates' impact on PreK-12 student learning.  | Technology directors from Rockingham County and Harrisonburg City Schools, three ISTE NET for Teachers (NETS-T) certified teachers, staff from Bridgewater's Information Technology Department, a cross representation of Bridgewater faculty, two current Bridgewater students, and two Bridgewater College alumni who are currently teaching in the PeK-12 schools. | No   |
| 12.    | Amigos Unidos (Tutoring Friendship Program)  | This program brings together Bridgewater College students and the Hispanic community from a middle school to encourage a rich cultural exchange of ideas, customs, and activities, while also promoting lasting friendships.   | This collaboration meets the needs of the PreK-12 community by providing role models for the Hispanic students by encouraging them to stay in school, becoming excited about school and learning, encouraging them to achieve in school, working with bilingual college students, providing them opportunities to practice English speaking and reading skills. This also increases the Hispanic students' self-esteem and enhances their learning. | The collaboration is among the Bridgewater College Teacher Education Program, the Bridgewater College World Languages Department, and Rockingham County Schools (Wilbur Pence Middle School).   | No   |
| 13.    | Shenandoah Valley Reading Council Young Authors Celebration (Northern Celebration)                                 | This collaboration is a one-afternoon seminar in which an author reads from his/her works. The author talks to students in grades 1-5 about being writers. The students are then grouped to read their own writings and provide peer feedback monitored by Bridgewater College pre-service candidates. | This collaboration helps the students in grades 1-5 (approximately 165) to see themselves as future writers and broaden their perspective of writing through their interaction with a published author.   | The collaboration is between the Shenandoah Valley Reading Council and Bridgewater College Teacher Education Program, involving Bridgewater College candidates and students from Harrisonburg City Public Schools, Page County Public Schools, Rockingham County Public Schools, Shenandoah County Public Schools, and six area private schools.                      | No   |

| 14.    | College for a Day   | Middle school students are invited to Bridgewater College for the day to experience what life is like at college.   | This early introduction to college helps middle school-age students begin to focus on postsecondary education and is specifically targeted for low-achieving, disadvantaged youth.   | Divisions include: Harrisonburg City Public Schools (Skyline Middle School); Rockingham County Public Schools (Montevideo Middle School and Wilbur Pence Middle School).  | No   |
| 15.    | Shenandoah Valley Writing Academy at Bridgewater College  | The focus of the two-week (five days; six-hour days) writing academy is to help teachers understand themselves as writers and how to more effectively use a process approach of writing instruction that develops writers (their students), who cannot only write with an authentic voice but be communicators of critical thought. Using a writer's workshop approach, the academy works with teachers of all content levels, and across PreK-12 levels. | This collaboration meets the needs of the PreK-12 community by working with PreK-12 classroom teachers to develop a process and skills to ultimately enhance the writing skills of their students. This will lead to increases in student learning, better student writing skills, and SOL and SAT writing scores. | Invited divisions include: Augusta County Public Schools, Bath County Public Schools, Harrisonburg Public Schools, Page County Public Schools, Rockingham County Public Schools, and Shenandoah County public schools, as well as five private schools. | No   |
| 16.    | Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics (STEM) Partnership with four other institutions of higher education in a program entitled "Bridging the Valley" | The focus of the STEM Program, "Bridging the Valley," is to ensure that all eligible students with an interest in a STEM field are given academic encouragement and support to excel during their pre-college and/or undergraduate years.   | This collaborative partnership enables pre-college students to become better prepared to consider a major in one of the STEM areas during their collegiate career. The program also helps them to become prepared to meet the demands of college-level courses and ultimately to excel in STEM coursework.         | Local public school students and student and faculty staffing from Bridgewater and four other local colleges/universities participate in the program.   | Yes  |
| 17.    | Field Experience Component for Family and Consumer Science course FCS 400: Child Growth and Development - 20 clock hours  | This field experience takes place in a pre-school lab setting in the Family and Consumer Science Department, with an emphasis on working with pre-school children in a structured environment. The PreK-6 licensure-tract students are involved in a variety of activities teaching the children. Lesson plans, journals, and directed reflections are required for this field experience.  | This partnership meets the needs of the PreK-6 community by providing learning opportunities for our program completers to be better equipped to work with PreK-6 students. This will allow school systems to consider applicants for a position who have actually worked in the PreK-6 classroom.                 | Bridgewater Church of the Brethren pre-school students, Augusta County, Harrisonburg City, Page County, Rockingham County, Shenandoah County, Staunton City, and Waynesboro City.   | No   |

| 18.    | Education Field Experience Component for the Course ENG/SPAN/FREN 317: ESL and Foreign Language Teaching (40 clock hours)                       | This field experience is an immersion experience for the pre-service candidate seeking English as a Second Language (ESL) licensure and takes place in an elementary classroom with an emphasis on identifying and meeting the needs of PreK-6 ESL students who are engaged in becoming acclimated to living in a culture other than their native one and learning English. The Bridgewater College pre-service candidate also works on developing an understanding of the whole child.                               | This partnership meets the need of the PreK-6 community by tutoring PreK-6 students with limited English proficiency to improve their reading and comprehension skills, which in turn impact these students' learning.   | This experience takes place in either Harrisonburg City or Rockingham County public schools.   | No   |
| 19.    | Health and Human Sciences Field Experience component for Health and Physical Education course ES 385: Adapted Physical Education and Recreation | This field experience takes place in adaptive physical education settings in local schools with an emphasis on working with PreK-12 students with exceptional needs in a structured environment. The PreK-12 licensure-tract students are involved in a variety of activities working with and teaching the students. Lesson plans, journals, and directed reflections are required for this field experience.  | This partnership meets the needs of the PreK-12 community by providing learning opportunities for program completers in the Bridgewater College Health and Physical Education program to be better equipped to work with PreK-12 students with exceptional needs. This will allow school systems to consider applicants for a position who have actually worked in a classroom serving students with exceptional needs. The experience also provides additional help/resources for the PreK-12 practitioner. | This experience takes place in PreK-12 Health and Physical Education classrooms in Rockingham County Schools.  | No   |
| 20.    | Bridgewater College Chapter of the Society of Physics Students (Physics Club) and the American Chemical Society (Chemistry Club)                | The Physics Club and the Chemistry Club are actively involved in performing science demonstrations in some of the local PreK-12 schools. They have given group assembly performances and illustrations of science concepts using laboratory equipment. Other visits have been more hands-on with classroom students directly participating in and/or conducting experiments. In one of the local schools, the clubs participate in the school's "Math and Science Night" sponsored by the Parent Teacher Association. | This collaboration meets the needs of the PreK-12 community by increasing the interest of the PreK-12 students in the field of science by seeing college students conduct various interesting experiments. The PreK-12 students have learned and developed an understanding of some basic science concepts. This potentially could have an impact on their Standards of Learning science scores.   | These experiences take place in the following Rockingham County public schools: Ottobine Elementary School, John Wayland Elementary School, and Peak View Elementary School. | No   |

| 5.     | Project HOPE-Virginia                                   | Project HOPE-Virginia is the Virginia Education Program for Homeless Children and Youth and is a federally-funded grant authorized by the McKinney-Vento Homeless Assistance Act. Project HOPE-Virginia ensures the enrollment, attendance, and the success of homeless children and youth in school through public awareness efforts across the Commonwealth and the issuance of subgrants to school divisions. Project HOPE-Virginia collaborates with other federally-funded programs within Virginia, such as Title I, special education, and Head Start. | Homelessness increases risk for academic failure and identification for special education, and decreases the likelihood of high school graduation. Meeting the needs of children experiencing homelessness requires collaboration among state and local agencies supporting all areas of life, including food, shelter, health care, education, and a variety of social services.  | Virginia Department of Education (VDOE) Office of Student Services; VDOE Office of Special Education; VDOE Office of Program Administration and Accountability; all 132 school divisions in Virginia; Early Childhood Special Education Priority Project; Head Start (national, state, and local levels); Virginia Department of Criminal Justice Services; Virginia Department of Housing and Community Development; Virginia Department of Social Services; Virginia Interagency Coordinating Council; Virginia Commission on Youth; Advisory Committee to the Special Advocates and Children's Justice Act Program; U.S. Department of Education Student Achievement and School Accountability Office; National Center for Homeless Education; National Association for the Education of Homeless Children and Youth; National Law Center on Homelessness and Poverty (Dr. Patricia Popp, Director) | Yes  |
| 6.     | Focus on the Future                                     | Focus on the Future is a career and academic planning experience for high-ability students, grades 6-12 and their parents. The program exposes high-ability learners to career opportunities related to the arts, humanities, mathematics, and sciences. The program also informs parents of considerations and guidelines for effective career and academic planning.  | This project aims to promote the academic achievement of high-ability students in secondary schools by providing opportunities for students and their families to explore careers and to plan for post-secondary education. Focus on the Future complements and extends traditional guidance counseling that schools are able to provide, bringing resources, programs, and speakers to participants, including students and their families. | Statewide, with majority of participants from Superintendents' Study Regions 1 and 2; available to the general public as a service offered directly to families and children; Center for Gifted Education (Dr. Tracy Cross, Executive Director)  | No   |

| 7.     | Saturday and Summer Enrichment Programs (SSEP)          | Saturday and Summer Enrichment programs for high ability students are offered through the Center for Gifted Education for students in grades K-9. The enrichment program enables students to explore specialized topics not typically studied in the regular classroom. Behaviors fostered by the enrichment program include students' abilities to apply process skills used in individual fields of inquiry, to recognize problems and approaches to problem-solving, to understand and appreciate individual differences, and to become self-directed learners. | This project aims to promote the academic achievement of high-ability students in grades K-9 by providing learning opportunities that extend beyond the conventional academic curriculum. The program develops students' abilities, talents, and interests. The SSEP also promotes the exploration of academic disciplines, extends learning opportunities, and enriches the develop of high-ability learners, complementing and extending the educational programs that partnering schools are typically able to provide. | Statewide, with majority of participants from Superintendents' Study Regions 1 and 2; available to the general public as a service offered directly to families and children; Center for Gifted Education (Dr. Tracy Cross, Executive Director)  | No   |
| 8.     | The Eastern Virginia Writing Project (EVWP)             | The mission of the Eastern Virginia Writing Project (EVWP) is to improve the teaching of writing and to improve learning in Eastern Virginia's schools. The EVWP recognizes the primary importance of teacher knowledge, expertise, and leadership. Through its extensive network of teachers, the EVWP seeks to promote exemplary instruction of writing in every classroom in our region of Virginia.  | This partnership aims to improve the academic achievement and learning outcomes of students in K-12 schools by providing targeted professional development to classroom teachers in the teaching of writing. Writing is an essential skill and is highly correlated with academic achievement. Therefore, the improved teaching of writing addresses the need of improving students' writing abilities and their learning across subject areas.  | Regions 1, 2, and 3; National Endowment for the Humanities; Virginia Foundation for the Humanities (Dr. James W. Beers, Director)  | Yes  |
| 9.     | School-University Research Network (SURN)               | The mission of the School-University Research Network is to improve teaching and learning for all learners through collaborative field-based research that informs the delivery of educational services. The goals include identifying best practices for resolving current instructional, administrative and policy issues and sharing proven strategies and services among school division partners.   | The aim of this partnership is to improve the teaching and learning of all students through targeted research and professional development. Superintendents and specialists collaboratively define annual priorities for the partnership. SURN staff secure resources for research and professional development in service of the defined needs of the constituent school divisions.   | Charles City, Franklin City, Gloucester, Hampton City, Hopewell, Isle of Wight, King and Queen, King William, Lancaster, Mathews, Middlesex, New Kent, Newport News, Norfolk, Northumberland, Petersburg, Poquoson, Portsmouth, Prince George, Southampton, Suffolk, Surry, Virginia School for the Deaf and Blind, West Point, Williamsburg-James City, York, Chesapeake, Virginia Department of Education (Dr. Jan Rozzelle, Director) | Yes  |

| 10.    | Tidewater Team for Mathematics Education                | The Tidewater Team for Mathematics Education is dedicated to encouraging best practices in the teaching of mathematics in order to promote excellence in mathematics achievement for K-12 students. The effectiveness of the Tidewater Team is a result of the strong partnerships between The College of William and Mary and the surrounding Tidewater area school divisions. This program provides a high level of content-specific, application-rich mathematics instruction that leads to a deep understanding of functions and their behaviors within the context of mathematical modeling and data analysis. | This partnership aims to increase the number of teachers who are highly qualified to teach mathematics at all levels (PreK-12).   | Brunswick, Charles City, Chesapeake, Dinwiddie, Gloucester, Hampton, Hopewell, Isle of Wight, King & Queen, King William, Lancaster, Mathews, Middlesex, New Kent, Newport News, Norfolk, Northumberland, Poquoson, Portsmouth, Prince George, Richmond County, Suffolk, Surry, Virginia Beach, West Point, Williamsburg-James City, York (Dr. Marguerite Mason, Director) | Yes  |
| 11.    | Noyce Scholars / Twenty-first Century Teachers (TCT)    | With funds from the National Science Foundation, the Noyce Scholars and TCT programs aim to increase the number of K-12 teachers with strong mathematics and science content knowledge and excellent pedagogical preparation who will teach in high-needs middle and secondary schools in the region.   | The project aims to have a broad impact on candidates, the K-12 students they serve, teacher education at The College of William and Mary, and national professional communities in science and mathematics education. Intended project outcomes include increased numbers of science and mathematics teachers in Virginia and improved quality of mathematics and science teaching.  | Noyce Scholars complete field experiences in high-needs school divisions (including Hopewell City) and must commit to serving two years as a mathematics or science teacher in a high-needs local education agency within four years of graduation. | 12.    | Achievable Dream  | The College of William and Mary - Achievable Dream Partnership is designed to incorporate research-based practices in teacher education. The partnership promotes (1) rigorous and comprehensive training, (2) candidates in cohort groups, (3) ongoing, supervised experiences in high-needs schools, (4) support from mentor teachers, (5) induction support when candidates become teachers of record, (6) payment of a living-wage stipend, and (7) three-year service obligation in high-needs schools.  | The partnership aims to have impact on candidate acquisition of essential knowledge, skills, and dispositions. The partnership also aims to strengthen the effectiveness of teachers for urban schools, where it has been well documented that the students most in need of high-powered instruction and nurturing relationships have had the least qualified and effective teachers. | The Achievable Dream Academy, Achievable Dream, Inc., and Newport News Public Schools. (Dr. Virginia McLaughlin, Principal Investigator)   | Yes  |

| 13.    | Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics (STEM) Education Alliance (formerly N-STAR) | This Virginia demonstration project, sponsored by the Office of Naval Research and the National Defense Education Program, which began in 2004, involves The College of William and Mary, Stafford County Schools, and the Naval Warfare Center Dahlgren Division in an innovative partnership effort to increase the science, mathematics, and technology skills of middle school students and their interest in pursuing future careers in science and engineering. | This partnership aims to improve middle school students' achievement in science, mathematics, and technology and to promote their interest in pursuing future careers in science and engineering. The promotion of careers in STEM disciplines (science, technology, engineering, and mathematics) is a targeted need identified by the federal government, as well as the Commonwealth of Virginia. | Stafford County Schools, Office of Naval Research, and the Naval Warfare Center Dahlgren Division (Dr. Gail Hardinge, Principal Investigator)  | Yes  |
| 14.    | Project Civics  | With funds from the U.S. Department of Education, this program will demonstrate how the implementation of advanced, research-based curriculum in social studies, combined with enrichment and talent skills, will enhance civic awareness for underachieving learners in diverse settings.  | This project is designed to: (1) implement research-based social studies curriculum units in grades 6-7; (2) pilot test innovative talent development strategies aimed at reversing underachievement for at-risk students; (3) develop curriculum models for teachers; and (4) conduct research on student learning and motivational gains.  | Implemented in selected school divisions in Virginia and school districts in Alabama; project partners include the Colonial Williamsburg Foundation, Streetlaw Inc., and the Southern Poverty Law Center. (Dr. Jeremy Stoddard and Dr. Carol Tieso, Principal Investigators) | Yes  |
| 15.    | Preparing Inclusive Educators (PIE)   | Funded by the federal Office of Special Education Programs through a personnel preparation grant, this project seeks to improve the recruitment, preparation, and retention of special education and general education teachers, with specific focus on employing evidence-based instructional practices and effectively reaching students from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds.  | This five-year project seeks to address the need to prepare and retain greater numbers of professional teachers in the critical shortage area of special education and to meet the need to reach increasingly diverse populations of students from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds.  | Local school divisions in the geographic service area of The College of William and Mary (including Williamsburg-James City, York, New Kent, Gloucester, Newport News, and Hampton). (Dr. Sharon deFur and Dr. Christopher Gareis, Co-Principal Investigators)               | Yes  |
| 16.    | English as a Second Language (ESL) Partnership for Preparation                                | This collaboration between faculty at The College of William and Mary with selected school divisions exists to facilitate the process of arranging and supervising field experiences for teacher candidates seeking dual-endorsement in teaching English as a Second Language (ESL) while completing their initial preparation in elementary, secondary, or special education teaching.   | The Commonwealth of Virginia continues to experience significant growth in its English as a Second Language (ESL) population in K-12 schools, and ESL is a critical shortage area in teaching. This collaboration aims to result in the preparation of increased numbers of general and special education teachers who hold a dual endorsement in ESL.   | Williamsburg-James City, Newport News, and Henrico (Dr. Gail McEachron, Program Coordinator)   | Yes  |

| 1.     | Early Field Experiences / Internships                   | In each education course, students are required to complete a 20-40 hour internship. The Ferrum College Teacher Education Program Director requests teachers from Franklin County as volunteers to participate with approval from their principal and central administration. | Ferrum students provide tutorial assistance as well as clerical assistance for teachers in Franklin County Public Schools. As students progress in the Teacher Education Program, they begin to practice teaching lessons under the tutelage of cooperating teachers.   | Franklin County Public Schools, Mr. Phillip Poff, Director of Human Resources (phillip.poff@frco.k12.va.us); Approximately 75 teachers volunteer each semester - list of volunteers found at both Franklin County and Ferrum College.  | Yes  |
| 2.     | Student Teaching Placements                             | Area school systems provide opportunities for preservice teachers to complete program requirements for licensure.   | Ferrum College graduates apply for and gain employment in nearby rural school divisions, which may often be hard-to-staff areas.  | (1) Franklin County Public Schools, Contact: Mr. Phillip Poff, Director of Human Resources (phillip.poff@frco.k12.va.us );(2) Roanoke City Public Schools, Contact: Ms. Alycia Garrison, Licensure Specialist (agarrison@rcps.info ) ;(3) Roanoke County Public Schools, Contact: Ms. Shannon Dogan (sdogan@rco.k12.va.us ) ;(4) Fairfax County Public Schools (Russian only), Contact: Ms. Betsy Sandstrom (ecstandstrom@fcps.edu ) | Yes  |
| 3.     | Clinical Faculty Partnership                            | Public school teachers have a clinical faculty representative from Ferrum College who coordinates and supervises early field experiences.   | Public school teachers provide feedback to Ferrum College, via the clinical faculty, concerning the needs of their classrooms, as well as reporting on the success of student interns in field experiences. The placement of a high school clinical faculty representative has increased internal communication within Franklin County High School. | Franklin County Public Schools, Contact: Mr. Phillip Poff, Director of Human Resources (phillip.poff@frco.k12.va.us )  | Yes  |

| 4.     | America Reads   | Ferrum College receives funds for work study initiatives that assist local schools with additional tutorial assistance during school hours in the area of reading.                             | Additional assistance in reading is identified by local schools in partnership with Ferrum College. Work study students are matched to students at local schools.   | Franklin County Public SchoolsContact: Mr. Phillip Poff,Director of Human Resources,(phillip.poff@frco.k12.va.us)  | Yes  |
| 5.     | The Center of Energy Efficient Design, or CEED Project  | Ferrum College is collaborating with The Gereau Center (Franklin County Public Schools) to develop lesson plans using the data from CEED. This project is in its beginning stages of planning. | This innovative center connects the college's sustainability theme to the real time data generated by this recently honored United States Department of Education Green Ribbon School. Students will be developing lesson plans that can be used by teachers worldwide. By partnering with CEED, Ferrum College will be assisting the local community with lesson planning using actual real-time data from CEED. In addition, students will be able to deliver these developed lesson plans to students in middle school during their internships. | Franklin County Public Schools, The Gereau Center for Applied Technology and Career Exploration,Contact: Mr. Kevin Bezy,Principal,(kevin.bezy@frco.k12.va.us ) | Yes  |

| 17.    | Skill Survey for Student Teachers Working with Students with Disabilities (King-Sears)     | This is a multi-year research project in which student teachers in general and special education programs are queried about their skills in working with students with disabilities during their student teaching experiences. Student teachers self-rate their skills using a Likert-scale rating system, and their respective school-based supervising/cooperating teachers and college/university supervisors also rate the student teachers. The purpose of this research is to compare participants' responses, and multiple comparisons occur, such as general education student teachers' self-ratings compared to special education student teachers' self-ratings. | Beginning general and special education teachers need to graduate from teacher preparation programs that have prepared them well to teach students with disabilities. Analyzing data from student teaching personnel at the pre-service level enables teacher preparation programs to be responsive to programmatic needs so that if there are areas that need to be addressed within the teacher preparation program to better prepare general and special educators to teach students with disabilities, that can occur. | Johns Hopkins University, Dr. Debbie Carran; Marywood University; York College, Dr. Stacey Dammann; University of South Florida                          | Yes  |
| 18.    | George Mason University - Burke School (Fairfax County Public Schools) (Margo Mastropieri) | This is a research partnership to teach expressive writing to students with serious emotional disabilities at the middle school. The research project is a subcontract with Penn State University and funded by the US Department of Education, Institute of Education Sciences. (This partnership ends in summer 2012.)   | Students in the eighth grade are required to take the writing SOL exam. The GMU research project is designed to teach students with serious emotional disabilities a persuasive writing strategy designed to facilitate their writing in school and to generalize to performance in other classes and on the high stakes tests.  | George Mason University; Burke School; Fairfax County Public Schools, Jill Jakulski; Penn State University   | No   |
| 19.    | Kellar Institute for Human disAbilities (KIHD) - The VI Consortium                         | The VI Consortium is made up of five universities: George Mason University, James Madison University, Norfolk State University, Old Dominion University, and Radford University, to prepare teachers to be highly skilled at working with students with visual impairment and blindness.  | The VI Consortium enables teachers to develop the knowledge and skills needed to be highly skilled at working with students with visual impairment and blindness.  | James Madison University, Brianna Quinn; Norfolk State University, June Harris; Old Dominion University, Steve Tonelson; Radford University, Liz Alteiri | Yes  |
| 20.    | Virginia School for the Deaf and the Blind (VSDB)  | The Virginia School for the Deaf and the Blind (VSDB) partnership provides professional development opportunities.  | The partnership between Kellar Institute for Human disAbilities and VSDB provides professional development to teachers in the knowledge and skills needed to be highly skilled at working with students with visual impairment and blindness. Specifically, VSDB provides dormitory space for summer face-to-face courses taught through the VI Consortium and supports internship placements.   | Virginia School for the Deaf and the Blind, Nancy Armstrong, Director  | Yes  |

| 63.    | GMU; Division of Special Education and Human disAbility Research: Co-Teaching Research; currently with Loudoun County Public Schools; anticipating expanding to other school systems (Peggy King-Sears) | The research is designed to triangulate, from multiple data sources, perspectives about what is happening in co-taught classes. Descriptive study analyzes co-teachers' behaviors when demonstrating new content; co-teachers and their students complete surveys (some responses compared); they interview with co-teachers.                                     | Although results are aggregated across schools and school systems, school personnel acquire a greater awareness of how co-teachers demonstrate new content (one teacher? shared? varied demonstrations?) and how students perceive the instruction they receive (one teacher in charge? both teachers instructing?)                                  | School Year 2011-2012: Loudoun County Public Schools (anticipating adding more school systems during 2012-2013), Dr. Mary Kealy, Assistant Superintendent for Pupil Services in Loudoun County Public Schools  | Yes  |
| 64.    | GMU; Division of Special Education and Human disAbility Research: Self-Management Research using the LiveScribe Pen; with Fairfax County Public Schools (Peggy King-Sears and Anya Evmenova)            | This research involves: 1) Acquiring survey feedback and conducting interviews with students in physics classes whose teachers have used LiveScribe for homework; 2) Using control and treatment group of students self-managing their sustained attention, and determining effectiveness of self-management.   | FCPS has implemented a year-long Innovation Institute of Professional Development for teachers' use of the LiveScribe pen. GMU has worked with FCPS teachers who desired to participate in action research or more rigorous research. As such, the research adds another type of data to determine the effectiveness of LiveScribe as an innovation. | School Year 2011-2012: Fairfax County Public Schools, Dr. Kim Dockery, Assistant Superintendent of Special Services, Fairfax County Public Schools   | Yes - Approvals from GMU and school system's HSRBs   |
| 65.    | Textbook Use Research Project (AIM-VA)  | This is a research partnership to investigate the use of textbooks in the special education, inclusion, and general education classrooms. A qualitative study is conducted across grade levels, subject areas, and schools in Virginia. The data are collected via interviews with teachers, multiple face-to-face or Skype observations, and daily teacher logs. | AIM-VA Center provides accessible instructional materials in alternative formats to eligible students with print disabilities across Virginia. In order to support the use of textbooks in alternative formats, this research study is designed to explore the ways in which regular textbooks are commonly used in various classrooms.              | Anya Evmenova (George Mason University) and Digital Rights Managers (DRMs) from Fairfax County Public Schools, Loudoun County Public Schools, Craig County Public Schools, Prince-William County Public Schools, Smith County Public Schools, Wythe County Public Schools, Nelson County Public Schools, Henrico County Public Schools, Buchanan County Public Schools | Yes - GMU and Schools' Research Boards   |
| 66.    | AIM-VA Longitudinal Study   | This is a research partnership to investigate the effects of accessible instructional materials provided in a variety of alternative formats to eligible students with print disabilities across Virginia. The longitudinal data on the implementation of AIM-VA materials is collected via a survey and linked to the students' SOL test scores.                 | This research study is designed to investigate how teachers are currently using AIM-VA materials with their students in various settings as well as to examine the effectiveness of AIM-VA materials for students with print disabilities across grade levels and subject areas.   | Anya Evmenova and Yoosun Chung, George Mason University, and Digital Rights Managers (DRMs) across Virginia  | Yes  |

| 1.     | Prince William Cohort  | Each year we recruit and run a cohort in Prince William County Schools. Cohort members are teachers from the county who are interested in school leadership. These cohorts are often large and range between 23-26 students and follow the regular CEHD/EDLE admission and selection process and meet at a school in PW.   | Prince William County Public Schools are experiencing growth and increasing need for qualified administrators. The EDLE/PW cohorts help identify and train potential school leaders and provide a steady stream of candidates for the county.  | Prince William County Public Schools, Office of Professional Development, Natalie Bonshire                              | No   |
| 2.     | Frederick Cohort   | Every two years we start a cohort in Frederick County Public Schools. The cohort is made up of teachers from Frederick, Winchester and Winchester City, who aspire to be administrators. These cohorts range in size from 15-20 students and meet in a location in Frederick County and follow regular GMU selection and admission process. Frederick County teachers partake in the county's tuition reimbursement program.                           | Frederick County Public Schools, as well as its neighboring counties, are in a more rural area with limited access to higher education institutions. Having a program that comes to them enables them to have a qualified pool of candidates for leadership positions that become available.   | Frederick County Public Schools, Janet Goodhand, Coordinator of Staff Development and Federal Programs                  | No   |
| 3.     | Loudoun 7 and 8 Cohorts  | These two cohorts are comprised of teachers from Loudoun County Public Schools who aspire to be school leaders. Loudoun 7 started with 18 and Loudoun 8 with 23 members. The cohorts meet at allocation designated by Loudoun County Public Schools and go through the regular CEHD/EDLE selection and admission process. Loudoun County pays for 40 percent of the tuition for Loudoun County employees.  | Loudoun is a growing county with an increasing need for administrators. The various EDLE cohort provides a qualified pool of applicants for leadership positions. The participants sign an agreement to stay in the county for a minimum of two years after the completion of their degrees.   | Loudoun County Public Schools, Office of Professional Development, John O'Connor, Director                              | No   |
| 4.     | Regional North 10 and 11   | These cohorts are made up of teachers from Washington, D.C., Arlington, Alexandria, and Fairfax Counties. These cohorts number 21 and 25 and meet in FCPS. They have undergone the regular CEHD/EDLE selection and admission process. The diversity of the participants and school divisions provides a unique educational opportunity for the participants. Different tuition reimbursement is in place for participants based on each county's plan. | Washington, D.C., requires all administrators to have a master's degree in Education Leadership. This cohort enables many sitting administrators to meet this new requirement. It also provides a desirable location for aspirants from a range of school districts to meet. All school divisions help with the advertising and recruitment efforts. | Various principals in D.C.; Arlington, Assistant Superintendent, Meg Tuccillo; Alexandria, and Fairfax, Rita Cloutier   | No   |

| 5.     | Fairfax Cohort 10  | This cohort is similar to previous EDLE/Fairfax cohorts. The members will all be teachers from FCPS, who go through a rigorous screening process by the Selection Committee made up of FCPS and EDLE representatives in addition to the CEHD admissions process. This 24 member cohort meets in Fairfax and participates in the FCPS tuition reimbursement program.  | FCPS is a large school district with many administrators who are close to retirement age. This cohort provides quality candidates for leadership positions.   | Fairfax County Public Schools, -Office of Professional Learning and Training, Director Larry Brooks and Coordinator Rita Cloutier                              | No   |
| 6.     | Regional North 10 and 11   | These cohorts are comprised of teachers from FCPS, Alexandria City Schools, Arlington Public Schools and PW County Public Schools. They have 21 and 25 members and meet in a school in FCPS and have undergone the regular CEHD admissions process. Different tuition reimbursement is in place based on each school division's plan. The diversity of school divisions provides a unique educational opportunity. | All of these school divisions have a need for qualified school leaders and this cohort provides quality candidates for leadership positions in these divisions.   | FCPS-Rita Cloutier; Arlington-Meg Tucillo; PW-Natalie Bonshire   | No   |
| 7.     | Arlington Fairfax Alexandria 2   | This cohort is scheduled to complete this year and is made up of Alexandria and Arlington teachers who have undergone a rigorous screening process by the AFA Steering Committee, made up of representatives from CEHD/EDLE and the two school divisions, in addition to the CEHD admissions process. The cohort has approximately 20 members. They meet in Arlington and receive tuition benefits.                | Arlington and Alexandria are both highly diverse school divisions with special needs. This cohort enables them to participate actively in development of the next generation of quality candidates to lead their schools. | Arlington-Meg Tucillo; Alexandria- Betsy Shays, Executive Director, Alliance for Learning and Leading  | No   |
| 8.     | Southwest  | This cohort is comprised of teachers in Stafford, Fauquier, Spotsylvania and Culpeper counties. They have undergone the normal EDLE recruitment and admissions process. The courses alternate between Stafford and Fauquier to make it accessible to these school divisions that are more rural and have less access to university programs.   | These counties are primarily more rural and less diverse than our other cohorts.  | Stafford- Pat Wiedel-Director of Professional Learning Spotsylvania-Sara Branner, Chief Information Officer Fauquier-Sandra Mitchell, Associate Superintendent | No   |

| 9.            | Special Education Leadership Cohorts (a Partnership between ELDE and SPED (SELE) SELE Cohorts in Fairfax, Loudoun and Prince William) | Special Education Leadership Program was created as a partnership between EDLE and SPED leads to the Supervision and Administration Licensure. There is a combination of five licensure courses and five EDSE courses in the program. Three SELE cohorts have begun during the 2011-2012 time frame in each of the three mentioned counties. The members are mostly special education teachers interested in licensure. The counties help with the recruitment and provide various tuition benefits. | All of these school divisions have a need for qualified school leaders and this cohort provides quality candidates for leadership positions in these divisions with special knowledge of special education. | FCPS-Niki Connors; LCPS-Connie Smith, Special Education Supervisor   | No  |

| 4.     | Science Museum Field Experience                                | Hollins University has worked closely with the Science Museum of Western Virginia in Roanoke, Virginia to expose students to diverse teaching opportunities. Hollins faculty member and science educator Professor Rebecca Cox has coordinated field experiences for education students to observe outreach programs, to volunteer as docents for various exhibits, to explore exhibit design, and to staff summer science camps.  | With increased accountability, the schools need teachers who are highly qualified, particularly in high needs areas as the sciences often are.  | Hollins University Faculty and the Science Museum of Western Virginia, Christy Brooks or Ann Shepherd  | No   |
| 5.     | Hollins University's School-Embedded Service Learning Projects | The Hollins University Education Department's School-Embedded Service Learning Projects provide during and after-school academic support for students Pre-K-8. Pre-service teachers experience hands-on opportunities through individual tutoring and small group work. Teacher candidates work in focused ways with children examining how students learn best. These experiences combine the academic objectives of our courses and community service. Assignments are implemented which engage pre-service teachers in service-oriented tasks linked to course criteria. The experiences cultivate reflection and add tremendously to class discussion and the conceptualization of course content. The service learning projects also develop cooperative and mutually beneficial relationships with members of the community. | The students with whom we are privileged to work benefit from building new relationships and working with literacy mentors. Our pre-service teachers offer a mix of perspectives and approaches which create an enhanced learning environment. One-on-one and small group interaction improves opportunities for authentic assessment of student work and leads to increased potential for student learning. Our pre-service teacher inquiry groups conduct action research; they help identify student learning issues and implement best practices to address those issues. | Hollins University Faculty; Roanoke Community Youth Program - Julie Schaaf, Director; Roanoke Valley; North Cross School - Dr. Chris Proctor, Headmaster; Community School: Holly Hirst, Executive Director; Salem Montessori School | No   |

| 28.    | Amherst County High School (ACHS)                          | Fourth year candidates in English Education complete a one-credit practicum in the various English classrooms of ACHS, typically in conjunction with their English Methods class. The length of observation is normally 30 clock hours, and when possible, the candidates teach two lessons during the period of their observation. | Candidates assist with grading homework, papers, and quizzes (in some cases); they assist with other administrative functions such as attendance and some in-school activities. Practicum includes one-on-one tutoring that candidates provide to students.   | LU: Bill Gribbin (English Faculty Member);ACHS: Julie McAndrews (Classroom English Teacher)   | No   |
| 29.    | Appomattox County High School and Appomattox Middle School | This informal partnership provides Family and Consumer Sciences (FACS) education candidates the opportunity to observe FACS classrooms and plan, implement, and evaluate one lesson.  | This partnership helps LU candidates to be prepared to work with students of ethnic diversity in the middle and high school FACS classrooms. Subjects taught include: culinary, child development, nutrition, resource management, individual development, and integration of Family, Career, and Community Leaders of America (FCCLA) into the curriculum. | LU: Linda Kitchel (FACS Faculty Member)ACHS/AMS: Brette Arbogast (Director of Technology)   | No   |

| 30.    | E.C. Glass High School   | The partnership places LU teacher candidates as mentors in multiple contexts with K-12 postsecondary transition students. Currently LU candidates help these transition students attending Central Virginia Community College (CVCC) in the College for Living Plus program. LU candidates assist transition students as they work on LU's campus in a variety of departments (the library, the post office, catering services, and others), and in the community on actual job sites. | The participation of practicum candidates in these contexts enables the E.C. Glass High School students to be successful as they prepare to be contributing members in the greater Lynchburg community.   | LU - Randy Dunn (SOE Faculty Member);E.C. Glass High School: Amy Page (Classroom Teacher)  | No   |
| 31.    | Fine Arts in the Content Areas Practicum (Amelon Elementary School, Elon Elementary School, New Covenant Schools, Liberty Christian Academy) | Practicum students attend their assigned schools once a week for one hour and fifteen minutes each visit, for a total of ten sessions. During these visits, students observe classroom dynamics, assist the host teacher in grading or other areas, and towards the end of the semester teach a lesson to the class.   | These partnerships establish relationships with area elementary schools, while providing their teachers with knowledgeable elementary education students who are willing to help the host teachers in whatever way needed. Host teachers are able to share their knowledge and experience, while gaining insight into possible new methods and trends in education. | LU: Ashley Haygood and Kathy Pickard (SOE Faculty and Staff Members);Amelon: Donna Lewis (Principal);Elon: Kim Anderson (Principal);NCS: Marion Patterson (Principal)LCA: Winnie Taber (Associate Superintendent of Instruction) | No   |

| 30.    | School Musicals   | Students in Vocal Music and Theatre Arts collaborate with local school drama and music departments to produce school musicals.   | Area high school students have opportunities to perform in drama and musical productions, therefore improving their skills. LC students get practical experience in helping students.   | Area high schools and LC music and theatre faculty  | No   |
| 31.    | Counseling Parent Education Program                     | Counseling faculty members present workshops and information sessions on a variety of topics related to family. Free parenting sessions are offered by area school systems as well as on the LC campus.  | Surveys and feedback from previous workshops and informational sessions indicate that parents want and need current information about specific topics such as drug use, drinking, sex education, and bullying.  | Sessions are open to all parents of any area schools.   | No   |
| 32.    | Counseling Practicum and Internships                    | Under the supervision of a Counseling faculty member, graduate Counseling students conduct individual and small group counseling sessions for area school students in grades one through 12. These sessions are held on the LC campus and in individual schools. | These sessions are helpful for school students who have social, emotional, and/or academic problems, especially at the middle and secondary levels. Graduate Counseling students also work with licensed counselors as paraprofessionals in school and agency settings. | Area school systems and LC faculty  | No   |

| 4.     | Mid Valley Clinical Faculty Consortium                  | The Mid Valley Clinical Faculty Consortium connects four institutions of higher education (Mary Baldwin College, James Madison University, Eastern Mennonite University, Bridgewater College) with interested teachers in the public schools, and provides training and high quality selection for those interested teachers. | The training provided by the Consortium paves a pathway for smooth working relations with the teacher and prepares the students for a better understanding of the role of the student teacher.  | Public school divisions: Augusta County, (Superintendent Dr. William Bishop), Harrisonburg City (Superintendent Dr. Scott R. Kizner), Rockingham County (Superintendent Dr. Carol Fenn), Staunton City (Superintendent Dr. Linda Reviea), Waynesboro City (Superintendent Dr. Robin Crowder) | Yes  |
| 5.     | Mentoring for the First Year Teacher                    | The first year teacher is assisted by an experienced teacher trained to mentor the novice teacher.  | This program addresses the need for a seamless transition from student teaching to first year teaching.   | Public school divisions: Augusta County, (Superintendent Dr. William Bishop), Harrisonburg City (Superintendent Dr. Scott R. Kizner), Rockingham County (Superintendent Dr. Carol Fenn), Staunton City (Superintendent Dr. Linda Reviea), Waynesboro City (Superintendent Dr. Robin Crowder) | Yes  |
| 6.     | OCAT (One Child at a Time Program)                      | Content Area Reading students tutor PreK-12 students in the local public schools.   | Standards of Learning scores show need for improvement in reading by students in the public schools.  | Public school divisions: Augusta County, (Superintendent Dr. William Bishop), Harrisonburg City (Superintendent Dr. Scott R. Kizner), Rockingham County (Superintendent Dr. Carol Fenn), Staunton City (Superintendent Dr. Linda Reviea), Waynesboro City (Superintendent Dr. Robin Crowder) | No   |
| 7.     | Career Fair in Waynesboro City and Augusta County       | Students are given the opportunity to meet and talk with representatives of business and higher education institutions about employment and educational opportunities. This experience helps students understand requirements for employment, career options, and potential for career advancement.                           | High school students often have difficulty connecting their school experiences to job opportunities or higher education options. Students become more motivated when they have the chance to talk about "real-world" situations with individuals who are outside the public school setting. | Waynesboro City (Superintendent Dr. Robin Crowder)   | Yes  |

| 8.     | Black History Month Oratorical Contest   | Sponsored every year by the MBC Office of African American and Multicultural Affairs, college students work as interns to help local public school students prepare speeches.                                     | The extra help is direly needed since this is an extracurricular program for which the practicing school teacher would have little or no time.  | Public school divisions: Augusta County, (Superintendent Dr. William Bishop), Roanoke City (Superintendent Dr. Rita Bishop), Staunton City (Superintendent Dr. Linda Reviea), Waynesboro City (Superintendent Dr. Robin Crowder) | Yes  |
| 9.     | PEARL Program: This program is named "pearl" because the college students believed the children and youth in the public schools to be as precious as pearls. | The program connects minority public school students with minority women of color at MBC.   | MBC students make every effort to increase the public school students' cultural awareness while enhancing their academic capabilities through regular tutoring sessions.                  | Public school divisions: Augusta County, (Superintendent Dr. William Bishop), Staunton City (Superintendent Dr. Linda Reviea)  | Yes  |
| 10.    | Black Baby Doll Day  | The Ida B. Wells Living Learning Community gives dolls to African American and Latino girls in the local public schools each year.  | This program helps the public schools to meet the need of enhancing the cultural pride of female students of color by providing baby dolls that appear to share their ethnic backgrounds. | Public school divisions: Augusta County, (Superintendent Dr. William Bishop), Staunton City (Superintendent Dr. Linda Reviea)  | Yes  |
| 11.    | International Society of Technology in Education Advancing Digital Age Teaching Certification  | In this program initiated by an MBC Adjunct professor of mathematics, local teachers use examples from MBC such as BlackBoard, testing online, and communicating with MBC students to achieve this certification. | The SOL score results show need for improvement in mathematics which will improve with more teachers incorporating technology into their teaching.  | Public school divisions: Augusta County, (Superintendent Dr. William Bishop), Staunton City (Superintendent Dr. Linda Reviea)  | No   |
| 12.    | Preparing Students to Excel in Mathematics   | This program is made possible by grant funding through the No Child Left Behind Act.  | The SOL score results show need for improvement in mathematics which will improve with more teachers incorporating technology into their teaching.  | Public school divisions: Augusta County, (Superintendent Dr. William Bishop), Staunton City (Superintendent Dr. Linda Reviea)  | Yes  |
| 13.    | Program for the Exceptionally Gifted   | This program provides an alternative to high school for academically gifted and talented students.  | This alternative to high school helps the public schools to serve a need not otherwise accomplished.  | Secondary Schools throughout Virginia and all states in the United States of America   | No   |
| 14.    | Mathematics Tutors   | MBC provides funding for at least one mathematics major to tutor at Stuart Hall School in Staunton.   | Extra individual help from an excellent college student is always helpful as a resource beyond the norm.  | Stuart Hall School in Staunton, VA   | Yes  |

| 15.    | MBC Environment-Based Learning (EBL) Program                                 | Thousands of dollars have been secured by MBC Professor, Tamra Willis, to support MBC Education students and local teachers to explore how their surroundings can help them develop lesson plans for all subjects.   | The MBC Environment-Based Learning Program makes the curriculum more relevant for students, while developing citizens who know how to critically analyze and problem solve issues related to communities and the environment.  | School Divisions in the Greater Shenandoah Valley and Western Virginia as well as Roanoke and Charlottesville areas.   | Yes  |
| 16.    | Expansion of Mary Baldwin College's Historic Commitment to Community Service | MBC employees and students contribute more than 13,000 clock hours annually in community service, much of which is completed in the public schools.  | The public schools need the assistance and connection with adults in the community for students to learn from the experience of adults and to benefit from the extra help.   | Public school divisions: Augusta County, (Superintendent Dr. William Bishop), Staunton City (Superintendent Dr. Linda Reviea)                                  | No   |
| 17.    | ED 510: Practicum  | This course, Graduate Field Experience, is an MAT course taken prior to supervised student teaching. The course requires a minimum of 140 clock hours in the classroom over the course of the MAT degree, including observation and involvement activities in the local public schools.  | This course is taken prior to supervised student teaching. Students are available to assist individual students, small groups of students, and a large group of students.  | All cities and counties in proximity to MBC regional areas in Virginia: Staunton, Weyers Cave, Charlottesville, Richmond, Roanoke, Hampton, Southside Virginia | No   |
| 18.    | MBC Teacher-In-Residence (MBC Environment-Based Learning Program)            | Through the MBC Environmental-Based Learning grants, Augusta County Public Schools has partnered with MBC to support a Teacher-In-Residence position at the college. Seventh grade life sciences teacher, Betty Gatewood, works with teachers in numerous school divisions who are implementing environment-based programs at their schools. | Schools and teachers with outdoor classrooms, schoolyard gardens, and investigative field experiences for students get support and help with their programs from a seasoned EBL teacher.   | Public school division: Augusta County, (Superintendent Dr. William Bishop)  | Yes  |
| 19.    | Career Fair  | This career fair in Rockingham County, in which MBC participates, supports school divisions to inform students about the need for new hires.   | This Career Fair, sponsored by the Shenandoah Valley Teachers Recruitment Consortium, is usually held during March at Harrisonburg High School. At this career fair, students receive information regarding vacancies in critical teaching areas and English as a Second Language. | Public school division: Rockingham County (Superintendent Dr. Carol Fenn),   | Yes  |

| 1.     | Marymount University and Arlington County Public Schools Professional Development School Partnership(PDS) - Internships                          | This partnership places seven to eight PreK-6 or special education (general curriculum, K-12) M.Ed. student interns in Ashlawn ES, Henry ES, Jamestown ES, Taylor ES, Jefferson MS, Washington-Lee HS. Interns serve in two placements through the internship: one high-needs school and one nonhigh-needs school from the beginning of the school year through the second week in May.  | This partnership yields highly effective teachers in a county that has vacancies each year. Arlington County has a priority to hire the PDS interns if the county chooses to do so. Also, interns assist, co-teach, and collaborate with trained mentor teachers. | Shannon Melideo and Mary Gibson, Marymount University; Susan Saber and Vicki Taylor, Arlington Public Schools           | Yes   |
| 2.     | Marymount University and Arlington County Public Schools PDS Partnership - Mentor Teacher and Clinical Faculty Development                       | PDS mentor teachers are provided clinical faculty training in PreK-6 and special education (general curriculum, K-12) supervision through a joint collaboration with Arlington Public Schools and Marymount Faculty.   | This partnership yields highly effective teachers who are trained to provide support and mentoring to PreK-6 and special education (general curriculum, K-12) interns.  | Shannon Melideo and Mary Gibson, Marymount University; Sue Saber and Vicki Taylor, Arlington Public Schools             | Yes   |

| 1.     | Administration and Supervision Field Experiences and Clinical Practices in Urban Educational Areas | Administration and Supervision school personnel candidates will complete hours in urban schools with assigned cooperating personnel administrators to meet course requirements for observation, participation, or an internship. Administrators, assistant principals, and school personnel serve as mentors to the candidates and allow them to participate, practice, and improve their administrative skills. | The partnership and collaboration allow the PreK-12 community to interact and assist future administrators and school personnel candidates in a way that also strengthens their skills. Knowledge and administrative strategies are shared. | Norfolk, Chesapeake, Virginia Beach, Suffolk, Portsmouth, Hampton, and Newport News Public Schools; NSU Secondary Education and School Leadership Department, Dr. Melendez Byrd | Yes  |

| 1.     | The Western Virginia Public Education Consortium                             | The consortium operates in partnership with public schools and local universities to provide staff development for administrators and many other professional opportunities to participating school divisions. | The consortium works closely with Radford University and Virginia Tech to support the needs of school divisions. The consortium was organized to provide opportunities for often underserved public school divisions to have greater purchasing power, grant seeking strength, and opportunities to develop joint staff development efforts and work collaboratively to solve educational issues in Southwestern Virginia. | Western Virginia Public School Consortium director, Dr. Terry Arbogast  | YES  |
| 2.     | Key Instructional Leaders  | The partnership consists of public school division-level instructional personnel from each school division in the state to establish and maintain regular contact with school divisions.                       | Regularly scheduled regional meetings are held to maintain regular contact with school divisions and meet the instructional and administrative needs of each division individually, as well as to work in cooperative arrangements within regions to meet training needs.  | Instructional personnel at Franklin County Public Schools; Carroll County Public Schools; and Pulaski County Public Schools with chair of key instructional leaders | YES  |

| 1.     | Reading Olympics-REAL (Real Experiences/Authentic Learning Program) | Henry Clay Elementary and college students met twice weekly for Reading Olympics' practice with topics for literacy focus selected by reading specialist at the elementary school.   | Reading needs assessed to be below expectations. Students' were from a wide range of socio-economic backgrounds. The program was to improve literacy skills among the K-2 students.  | Partners were college students and faculty as well as the elementary school's reading specialist.  | Yes  |
| 2.     | Student Teaching and Field Work Placements in Hanover Schools       | Randolph-Macon College has a long-standing, written partnership with Hanover County schools. It includes college faculty and students who serve the schools in various ways. Hanover County provides practicum and student teaching placements to develop future teachers. | The partnership meets the needs of PreK-12 students because college students provide tutorial services during practicum placements, enrichment activities, and ongoing special events on the college campus. College faculty serve on various school and county advisory committees. | Over 100 practicum and student teaching placements made annually at elementary, middle, and high schools throughout the county. Pre-service teachers provide tutoring and instruction under supervision of classroom teachers. | Yes  |
| 3.     | Macon A Difference Day - Earth Day Events                           | College students work with K-12 students and teachers on an array of gardening and clean-up projects in the Ashland area, in local schools, and on the college campus.   | The events engaged county students from Ashland area schools with college community members in environmentally responsible activities.   | Partners included college students, K-12 students, and community members.  | No   |
| 4.     | Middle Schoolers and College  | Byrd Middle School students and teachers were invited to lunch in the Education Building prior to a tour of the campus.  | The event was a career development component to help middle schoolers see college as viable option for future.   | Collaborators for this event were Education college faculty, Henrico County teachers, and middle school students.  | No   |
| 5.     | Middle/High Schoolers and College                                   | The purpose of this partnership was to introduce middle and high school students to the college community and see relevance of college and its extracurricular events to future career plans.  | There was a wide range of socio-economic status factors among students. The athletic events were engaging ways to have the students come to the college campus who may not have otherwise had a chance to do so.   | Collaborators included some of the college's coaches, Caroline County teachers, and middle and high school students.   | No   |
| 6.     | Music and Schools   | Select members of the college choir provided musical experiences and performances for elementary and high school students at Laurel Meadows Elementary School and Lee-Davis High School in Hanover County.   | Music was performed and students were able to participate using approaches they may not have had available to them otherwise.  | The collaborators included the college music students, as well as Hanover students.  | No   |
| 7.     | Tutoring with Role Models   | A college campus group, Brothers for Change, met weekly with Henry Clay Elementary students in afterschool programs for tutoring and games.  | Among the students there was a wide range of abilities and learning resources available. Many Henry Clay Elementary School students also were introduced to positive male role models.   | The partners were college students from a campus organization, Henry Clay Elementary teachers, and K-2 elementary students.  | Yes  |

| 4.     | University Practicum /Placement Experiences - Elementary Education, English and Gifted Education | Field experiences represent the heart of Regent University's certification programs in education at the undergraduate and graduate levels. Through carefully structured placements, teacher candidates apply theoretical constructs and research-based practices in authentic settings. Performance tasks completed in clinical settings promote reflective thinking about these practices. Practica (field experiences) are divided into two levels: Tier I (observation) and Tier II (practica). Placement Cooperating Teachers benefit from the opportunity to give back to the profession and enhance their own professional development. | Practicum teachers have the opportunity to: a) reflect upon their own pedagogy in a constructive way; b) increase communication with teacher preparation institution; c) experience renewed enthusiasm for the profession. | 1) Atlantic Shores Christian Elementary School, Va. | 6.     | Partnerships with Luxford and Woodstock Elementary - Elementary Education | Regent University partnered with Luxford Elementary and Woodstock Elementary to place students enrolled in UIS 220 (Classroom Observation), a place to observe an elementary teacher in the classroom. A Regent adjunct professor who also works at Luxford coordinated twenty hours of observation for each student. The partnership between Woodstock developed from previous work the department chair assisted with. The adjunct met with the Regent students for five classroom hours as well. | This partnership met the needs of the PreK-12 community in two ways. First, Regent students will be able to help the classroom teacher work with small groups and assist with clerical tasks. Second, the partnership is providing the school system with well-trained future teachers.  | Luxford Elementary (JoAnne DiAgastino); Woodstock Elementary (Tonilee Oliverio); Regent University Representatives: Joan Hoskins, Carla Bergdoll.  | No   |

| 4.     | Regent University School of Education, Educational Leadership Program Partnership with K-12 Teachers Alliance (KTA). | Regent University School of Education, the Educational Leadership Program and the K-12 Teachers Alliance formed a partnership in 2009. KTA markets and sets up cohorts of students in a variety of school divisions across the Commonwealth of Virginia desiring to gain licensure in Educational Leadership. The RU Leadership Program then provides classes and instruction to these students at locations local to their places of residence. The cohorts work through the program on a two-year cycle, culminating with the completion of their graduate degrees in Educational Leadership. | This partnership provides a service to teachers by supplying a program in graduate studies that is conveniently located near their place of work/residence. The program also meets the needs of working adults by holding classes once a week in the evening, thereby allowing teachers the opportunity to complete their studies while still being gainfully employed. | Dr. Gail Derrick, Interim Dean, School of Education-Regent University; Dr. Glenn Koonce, Chair, Educational Leadership Program-Regent University; and Bruce Ranney (Now is Bernard Spencer), Chief Operating Officer, K-12 Teachers Alliance | Yes  |

| 1.     | Field Placement for Students Enrolled in (1) Foundations of Education and (2) Human Growth and Development   | Students enrolled in these courses are required to complete 20 clock hours of field placement for each course. The students are placed in a wide variety of educational settings designed to provide educational experiences with a wide array of students with many different academic performance levels. | PreK-12 students being taught by Saint Paul's College Teacher Education Program will be exposed to teachers who have been prepared to work with students on their academic and social developmental levels.            | Saint Paul's College Personnel; Area School divisions: Brunswick County, Lorie Mallory; Isle of Wight County, Dianne Pollard; Greensville County, Janet Roberts; Richmond City Schools, Dr. Darlene Currie | Yes  |
| 2.     | Student teaching partnerships include those with area school divisions. Cooperating Teachers are selected through collaboration with area school divisions and Saint Paul's College Department of Teacher Education Faculty. | Students seeking endorsements from the Department of Teacher Education are required to obtain 300 clock hours under the supervision of a cooperating teacher from a school division and the director of field experience for the college.   | The student teaching experience is one way for candidates seeking teaching endorsements to develop the skills needed to become effective educators.  | Saint Paul's College Personnel; Brunswick County, Lorie Mallory; Isle of Wight County, Dianne Pollard; Greensville County, Janet Roberts; Richmond City Schools, Dr. Darlene Currie                        | Yes  |
| 3.     | Partnership and Collaboration between Longwood University and Saint Paul's College for the "Call me Mister Program"  | The "Call me Mister Program" is an effort to prepare African American men to take on leadership roles in the field of education. The program emphasizes character building and values clarification.  | Men in the "Call Me Mister Program" are being prepared to teach and/or hold leadership positions in elementary or high schools. They will then be role models for students and other faculty in those school settings. | Longwood College and Saint Paul's College Faculty  | Yes  |
| 4.     | Brunswick Literacy Council   | The Brunswick Literacy Council provides instruction for community members who want to learn to read.  | The opportunity for community members to improve their reading abilities directly impacts their ability to help their PreK-12 students in their academic ability.  | The Dominion Leadership Program staff and Dr. Jennifer Algren  | Yes  |
| 5.     | Recognizing Excellence in Business Administration and Teacher Education  | This is a collaboration between the Department of Business and the Department of Teacher Education at Saint Paul's College to celebrate the accomplishments of students.  | This program encourages junior and senior high school students to seek scholarly endeavors and to honor public school cooperating teachers and administrators for their work with the student teachers.                | Faculty from Saint Paul's College's Business Department and Teacher Education Program; area schools  | Yes  |

| 1.     | Transition to Work  | Special needs high school students participate in "on the job" internships at Sweet Briar College (SBC), coached by students in the EDUC 410 course. Successful completion of the course earns high school students recognition at the end-of-year awards assembly at the high school.   | Coaching from pre-service special education students helps high school special needs students build skills in applying for jobs, interviewing, developing confidence and self-determination.  | James Gallagher (Amherst County Public Schools) and Margaret Ann White (Sweet Briar College, Education Department)                 | No   |
| 2.     | Web-based Lesson Plan for History and Social Sciences Standards of Learning (SOL) | Sweet Briar College's Director of Tusculum Institute worked with a Maryland teacher to create a lesson plan for teachers in grades 4-5, and 9-11 to use with History and Social Sciences SOL. ( http://www.tusculum.sbc.edu/Teaching/sbplantation/index.shtml )                  | The 40+ teachers who attended the 2012 "Teaching with Historic Places" conference had an illustrated lesson plan with PowerPoint slides and ready-made historic resources to use in classroom instruction.  | Dr. Lynn Rainville (Sweet Briar College) and Baltimore City Schools Teacher  | No   |
| 3.     | Web-based Treasure Hunt of Charlottesville's Court Square                         | An archaeology professor at Sweet Briar College has developed an online treasure hunt to support a program with the Albemarle County Historical Society to take school groups on guided tours.   | This online resource provides support for fourth and fifth graders' tours of the Court Square area in Charlottesville. Please see: www.locohistory.org/Albemarle/kids_tour1.shtml   | Albemarle County Schools (Mr. Rossini), Albemarle/Charlottesville Historical Society, and Sweet Briar College (Dr. Lynn Rainville) | No   |
| 4.     | Web-based Architectural Treasure Hunt   | An archaeology professor at Sweet Briar College has developed an online treasure hunt on Charlottesville's historic downtown mall.   | This website teaches elementary students about architectural styles. It provides engaging access to social studies content and allows students who cannot visit the mall to take a virtual field trip. Please see: www.sequent.org/lynn/Mall_home.html . | Sweet Briar College (Dr. Lynn Rainville)   | No   |
| 5.     | Web-based Lesson Plan for History and Social Science SOL                          | Sweet Briar College's Director of Tusculum Institute worked with an SBC education student to create a War of 1812 lesson plan for teachers in grades 4-5 to use with Virginia History and Social Sciences SOL. ( http://www.tusculum.sbc.edu/TeachingHistoricPlaces_2012.shtml ) | Eleventh-grade and fourth- and fifth-grade Virginia teachers have lesson plans and materials for teaching about the War of 1812 and the Presidencies of Monroe and Madison  | Dr. Lynn Rainville (Sweet Briar College) and a Sweet Briar undergraduate student   | No   |
| 6.     | Tye River Elementary Partnership  | Sweet Briar students enrolled in the introductory education class (EDUC 103) travel to Tye River Elementary School or Nelson Middle School once per week to tutor students and to put human development theories into context.   | SBC students provide tutoring and help small groups of students who are struggling with the content that the teachers are teaching.   | Nelson County Public Schools (Makenzie Walstrom) and Sweet Briar College (Holly Gould)   | No   |

| 7.     | Tye River Big Sister Partnership   | Sweet Briar students, either in EDUC 103 or not, travel to Tye River Elementary School to spend time with an individual student or students who need some extra emotional or academic support. Sometimes this partnership carries on throughout the Sweet Briar student's college career.   | Several students at Tye River have difficult home lives or issues that pose problems for the children. SBC students provide support, academically and/or emotionally, for these students who are struggling.  | Tye River Elementary School (Makenzie Walstrom) and Sweet Briar College (Holly Gould)  | No   |
| 8.     | Amherst County Public Schools/Sweet Briar Partnership  | Sweet Briar College entered into a signed, formal agreement with Amherst County Public Schools in the mid-90s that was formally renewed in 2006. In this agreement, the school division and the college pledge to work together to improve teaching and learning in the greater Amherst County community.                                     | This partnership broadly recognizes that students in PreK-12 need a range of support in order to be successful, and that this support can be enhanced by collaborative programs between the school division and the college community.  | Amherst County Public Schools (Dr. Brian Ratliff, Superintendent) and Sweet Briar College (Dr. Jo Ellen Parker, President)   | Yes  |
| 9.     | Differentiation Study Group  | Clinical Faculty/Mentor Teachers who will supervise Sweet Briar student teachers in the spring semester participate in a Differentiation Study Group that meets monthly during the fall semester as part of EDUC 633, Instructional Strategies for the Differentiated Classroom.  | Sweet Briar student teachers are assigned to classrooms across PreK-12. They meet with their Clinical Faculty supervisors during the fall study group to design SOL-based, differentiated instruction that they help to implement as a field experience one hour per week.    | Amherst County Public Schools (Julie Rogers) and Sweet Briar College (Dr. Holly Gould)   | No   |
| 10.    | Clinical Faculty, Mentors, Pre-service and Arts and Sciences: A Continuing Partnership for Quality Teaching and Learning | This is a block grant from the Virginia Department of Education supporting a partnership focused on Clinical Faculty/Mentor Teacher/Pre-service training. The partnership consists of Lynchburg, Randolph, and Sweet Briar Colleges, and the school divisions of Amherst, Appomattox, Bedford, Campbell, Nelson, and Lynchburg City.          | Based on needs assessments provided by each school division's participants, this partnership focuses on in-service and pre-service teacher staff development aimed at increasing teacher effectiveness, retention, and student learning in PreK-12.                           | Education Department Faculty from each of the three colleges and central office administrators from each of the six school divisions (names available on request as there is not room enough here to list) | Yes  |
| 11.    | Henry County Public Schools Differentiation Project  | Henry County Public Schools has a continuing grant from the Harvest Foundation to provide professional development to PreK-12 teachers on differentiation. Sweet Briar College faculty provide instruction and coaching on differentiation and Henry County teachers are given a reduced tuition rate on graduate courses on differentiation. | PreK-12 students in Henry County perform on varied readiness levels and demonstrate a range of learning styles, interests, and special needs. Sweet Briar faculty with expertise in differentiation provide instruction, resources, and planning assistance for this project. | Henry County Public Schools (Dewitt House) and Sweet Briar College (Dr. Holly Gould)   | No   |

| 12.    | Frederick County Public Schools Differentiation Project             | Frederick County Public Schools is in its second year of a professional development initiative focused on building expertise in differentiation. Sweet Briar College faculty provide instruction and coaching on differentiation and Frederick County teachers have been offered a reduced tuition rate on graduate courses on differentiation. | PreK-12 students in Frederick County perform on varied readiness levels and demonstrate a range of learning styles, interests, and special needs. Sweet Briar faculty with expertise in differentiation provide instruction, resources, and planning assistance for this project.  | Frederick County Public Schools (Angela White) and Sweet Briar College (Dr. James Alouf)   | No   |
| 13.    | Tutoring for PreK-12 Students in the Local Community                | Sweet Briar College students, through the college's Academic Resource Center (ARC) and the Student Virginia Education Association (SVEA) on campus, provide tutoring services. Schools and parents contact the ARC and their trained tutors as well as education students in SVEA are assigned.   | Assessment data in local schools indicates some students would profit from individual tutoring outside of school. The ARC and the SVEA try to match Sweet Briar students with appropriate content background or education courses in reading with individual student needs.        | Sweet Briar's Academic Resource Center (Mary Jo Upchurch) and Sweet Briar's SVEA (Dr. Holly Gould)                                     | No   |
| 14.    | Sweet Briar High School Scholars Program                            | Amherst County High School juniors and seniors with at least a 3.0 grade point average may take Sweet Briar College courses for college credit at a reduced tuition rate.   | In a rural area such as Amherst County, the options for dual enrollment credit for college-bound and gifted students are limited. This partnership provides this option within a five-minute drive (or bike ride) from the high school.  | Sweet Briar College (Deborah Powell) and Amherst County High School (Haywood Hand)   | No   |
| 15.    | Sweet Briar College/Amherst County Public Schools Cultural Arts Day | Amherst County Public Schools' fifth graders spend a day at Sweet Briar College, visiting special museum and art exhibits related to the Virginia Standards of Learning and social studies content, have lunch in the dining hall, and tour the campus to get a flavor of college life.   | Only 13.1 percent of Amherst County adults hold bachelor's degrees. This partnership meets PreK-12 needs on two levels: it provides resources and hands-on learning experiences related to the SOL and gives students an authentic and engaging introduction to college education. | Sweet Briar College (Karol Lawson) and Amherst County Schools (Evelyn Woodruff)  | No   |
| 16.    | Tri-College Consortium  | Lynchburg College, Randolph College, and Sweet Briar College have been part of a tri-college consortium for many years. This consortium offers a range of collaborative initiatives and opportunities for the local communities and the campuses.   | The three colleges work together to provide a range of programs for PreK-12 students, parents, and the community on topics and issues related to local needs. For example, Lynchburg College hosts the Schewel Lecture on issues related to education and diversity.               | Presidents of the three colleges: Lynchburg College - Ken Garren; Randolph College - John Klein; Sweet Briar College - Jo Ellen Parker | Yes  |

| 17.    | Tri-College Colloquium  | Each spring, Lynchburg, Randolph, and Sweet Briar Colleges sponsor a Colloquium for pre-service teachers who are in their last year of preparation or who are student teaching. Students hear a speaker and attend breakout sessions focused on topics identified as critical need areas in local schools.  | Local school divisions have identified data analysis, differentiation, and classroom management as PreK-12 areas of need. The Colloquium brings in teachers from local schools to provide professional development for pre-service teachers on these topics.                       | Lynchburg College (Dr. Jan Stennete), Randolph College (Dr. Margaret Schimmoeller), and Sweet Briar College (Dr. James Alouf)  | No   |
| 18.    | Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics (STEM) by Inquiry | Grants from the Virginia Department of Education through the Mathematics Science Partnership (MSP) program provide opportunities for teachers in grades three through eight to take inquiry-based courses and workshops with SBC science and mathematics faculty, implement new STEM lessons in their classrooms, and share the results with their peers. | The program focuses on science and math content geared specifically to the Virginia SOL for local teachers. Modeling, coaching, and resources on instruction in STEM build confidence in using strategies for teaching science and math that invite all students to be successful. | Central Office contacts in the school divisions of Amherst, Appomattox, Bedford, Campbell, and Nelson Counties and the City of Lynchburg, other Region 6 and Region 8 school divisions, Lynchburg College and Sweet Briar College (Dr. Jill Granger) | No   |
| 19.    | Campbell County Public Schools Differentiation Project              | Campbell County Public Schools has committed to train a core cadre of teachers to build expertise in differentiation. Sweet Briar College faculty provide instruction and coaching on differentiation and have been offered a reduced rate on classes.  | PreK-12 students in Campbell County perform on varied readiness levels and demonstrate a range of learning styles, interests, and special needs. Sweet Briar faculty with expertise in differentiation provide instruction, resources, and planning assistance for this project.   | Campbell County Public Schools (Dr. Rob Arnold) and Sweet Briar College (Dr. Holly Gould)  | No   |
| 20.    | Girls on the Run  | In May 2012, Sweet Briar partnered again with Girls on the Run to bring 300 regional elementary and middle school girls to campus.  | Girls on the Run has some core values, values of empowerment and achievement for girls and women.  | Sweet Briar College (Jackie Dawson) and Girls on the Run (Mary Hansen)   | No   |
| 21.    | National Introduce a Girl to Engineering Day, February 23, 2012     | Twenty-five sixth-grade girls from Nelson Middle School in Lovingston came to Sweet Briar on Feb. 23, 2012, for the first Introduce a Girl to Engineering Day. The girls were encouraged to step out of their comfort zone to design and build audio speakers that work on their iPods.   | The program encourages middle school girls to look seriously at future STEM careers.   | Nelson County Middle School (Vicki Mays), Sweet Briar College (Dr. Hank Yochum & Paulette Porter-Stransky, Project Coordinator)  | No   |

| 1.     | Clinical Practice   | Practicum, student teaching, and internship placements are made with the PreK-12 schools to ensure that candidates for teaching endorsements, through support, supervision, and evaluation, can demonstrate and apply the competencies enumerated in the Virginia Licensure Regulations for School Personnel and demonstrated by mentors.  | Clinical experiences are designed to assist the candidate with performance of the required program standards and competencies that must be demonstrated for a specific endorsement. Identified needs of the PreK-12 community are met through well-prepared and highly qualified teachers for their classrooms. PreK-12 schools mentor these individuals for the betterment of teaching and possible employment in their divisions.   | Administrators and licensed experienced teachers in the following school divisions/private schools: Caroline, Culpeper, Fauquier, Henrico, King George, Loudoun, Nelson, Prince William, Spotsylvania and Stafford; Cities of Falls Church and Fredericksburg; Odyssey Montessori School, Aurora School- Paxton Campus, and Alternative Paths Training School | Yes  |
| 2.     | Mentor Teacher Training   | The Director of Clinical Experiences and Partnerships conducts training sessions for all mentor teachers working with interns and student teachers, as well as teachers mentoring practicum students and recent University of Mary Washington graduates in their school divisions. Twenty new mentors successfully completed training as of this report, and over 100 additional teachers have enrolled for training sessions scheduled for summer 2012. | Providing instruction and resources in mentoring skills to veteran teachers enable them to help new teachers maximize their professional growth. Topics include: credible data collection, triangulation of assessment data, observation of novice and pre-service teachers, problem-solving uncomfortable mentoring scenarios with table-top exercises, and alignment of University of Mary Washington assessment tools with the new Virginia Department of Education Teacher Performance Standards. | Licensed educators with at least three years of teaching experience recommended by supervising administrators from the following school divisions: Stafford, Spotsylvania, Orange, Prince William, Culpeper, Henrico and Fredericksburg City  | Yes  |
| 3.     | School Outreach   | Faculty from across the university give presentations, participate in school programs and events, serve on school division and school-based committees, integrate school-based projects in their courses, and work with students in area schools in a variety of areas.  | This outreach serves to meet particular needs of the K-12 community and enrich the schools' curricula and special programs.   | School Administrators and teachers from the following school divisions: Orange County, Culpeper County, Henrico County, Spotsylvania County, Stafford County, and Fredericksburg City   | No   |
| 4.     | Professional Consultation of K-12 and University of Mary Washington Faculty | Faculty from the University of Mary Washington frequently consult with K-12 faculty and present workshops on a variety of professional issues (e.g., legal issues, multicultural and diverse student learning, content specific areas). Also, K-12 teachers often are asked to make presentations in their areas of expertise to students in University of Mary Washington education classes.  | This consultation serves to enhance the learning of both future and current teachers to better enable them to be successful teachers.   | School Administrators and teachers from the following school divisions: Spotsylvania County, Stafford County, Fredericksburg City, and Catholic Diocese of Arlington  | No   |

| 5.     | Professional Development Courses                          | Faculty develop and offer courses and workshops to assist educators in the local divisions to meet their licensure renewal requirements and professional learning needs.  | Course participants and school division representatives provide input for needed courses.  | School Administrators and teachers from the following school divisions:Fredericksburg City, Culpeper County, Stafford County, Caroline County, Spotsylvania County, Prince William County, Fauquier County, and King George County                               | No   |
| 6.     | Targeted Professional Development Course Development      | The College of Education collaborates with area school divisions to develop tailored professional development courses on particular topics of interest to sbe delivered on-site in the partner school divisions.  | Administrators provide requests for professional development needs to improve literacy instruction in their school divisions and select faculty who most need additional coursework to serve the changing student demographics.  | School Administrators and teachers from the following school divisions: Culpeper County and Fredericksburg City Public Schools   | Yes  |
| 7.     | Superintendents' Forum                                    | Three times per year, school division leaders meet to discuss educational issues and professional learning needs in the region.   | These events offer an opportunity to discuss current programs offered by University of Mary Washington as well as the continuing needs of local school divisions and ways that the University of Mary Washington can address those needs. The meeting serves as a springboard for collaboration between the university and school divisions to meet the needs of pre-service and in-service teachers as well as school children. | Superintendents and/or designee(s) from Region 3 and neighboring counties  | No   |
| 8.     | Rappahannock Partnership for Professional Learning (RPPL) | The purpose of the partnership, sponsored by the University of Mary Washington, is to create a community of PreK-20 educators who work together to achieve mutual goals based on targeted needs across school division lines. The program exists as a "Community of Practice" to develop and provide professional learning through collaboration and problem solving aligned to the National Staff Development Council standards. | The RPPL serves as a conduit for discussion and collaboration on professional learning needs across school division lines. The PreK-12 community wishes to address shared needs in a collaborative way that increases communication, disseminates best practices, and efficiently utilizes funds.  | School division Superintendent and/or designee(s) from the following school divisions:Fredericksburg City, Culpeper County, Stafford County, Caroline County, Orange County, Fauquier County, Spotsylvania County, Prince William County, and King George County | No   |

| 9.     | Ghana Project  | In collaboration with the Virginia State Reading Association, this project was established for two reasons: 1) to bring state-wide reading teachers and students together to offer teacher and student training in the area of reading, and 2) to provide statewide reading teachers the opportunity for a study abroad learning experience in a diverse environment. University of Mary Washington faculty and students traveled to Ghana in the summer of 2009 and 2011. | University of Mary Washington College of Education faculty direct a program during the summer in collaboration with the University of Education Winneba. Teachers from Virginia schools and University of Mary Washington students traveled to Ghana to participate in workshops and training for K-12 teachers in Winneba, Ghana, and participated in the workshops. The program also places the participants in schools to work with school age children. | Administrators and classroom teachers from University of Education Winneba, Virginia State Reading Association President, and University of Mary Washington - College of Education professors and undergraduate/graduate students | Yes  |
| 10.    | Stafford County Instructional Design and Technology Cohort                                     | The Stafford County Cohort was launched as a collaboration between Stafford County Schools and the University of Mary Washington to offer the Master of Education (M.Ed.) in Instructional Design and Technology on-site to Stafford County teachers. The first cohort program reached completion in fall 2011.  | The program addresses the need to support teachers to expand the use of technology in the classroom. Embedded throughout the program is instruction in using specific technologies available to teachers in Stafford County.  | Stafford County School Office of Professional Learning and University of Mary Washington Instructional Design and Technology Program-Department Chair for Curriculum and Instruction(CUIN)  | Yes  |
| 11.    | TESL 532: Differentiated Instruction for English Language Learners (ELL) Across the Curriculum | The Education program provides professional development in differentiated instruction for content area teachers working with English language learners (ELL) by offering TESL 532. Research suggests that differentiated instruction across the curriculum is one way for teachers to make the content accessible and comprehensible to ELL.   | The course assists the PreK-12 classroom teachers in understanding how to scaffold and differentiate lessons to meet instructional standards for English Language Learners. The course is offered in school divisions across the Commonwealth as requested.   | Virginia Department of Education, Office of English as a Second Language Personnel and University of Mary Washington College of Education, Department Chair for Foundations, Leadership, and Special Populations                  | Yes  |
| 12.    | Special Education Teacher Support Project  | This is a regional training program for provisionally licensed special education teachers (General Curriculum K-12). As of 2011, the grant funded project served over 70 special education teachers.   | This grant provides funding in the form of tuition assistance to support coursework that is part of a College of Education state-approved program in Special Education. Courses are offered in a blended format. An interactive Web site supports teachers in the field and a mentoring program is being planned for participating teachers.  | Virginia Department of Education Special Education grant; University of Mary Washington College of Education; Department Chair FLSP; provisionally licensed special education teachers in Region 3 school divisions               | Yes  |

| 14.    | SINE Science in the Environment                         | Science in the Environment provides K-12 teachers with content and inquiry activities that support the Physical Sciences, Interrelationships in Earth/Space Systems, Earth Patterns, Cycles, and Change and Resources strands of the Virginia Standards of Learning. This project was completed in 2011.   | The university and school partners have worked collaboratively to insure the success of the participating K-5 teachers and are committed to providing robust experiences that will enhance scientific education at the elementary school level. The partnership is designed to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• assist educators in making connections between science and their students' lives;</li> <li>• help teachers recognize the interdependence of physical, chemical and biological components of an ecosystem so they can abstract the concepts and apply them to their own grade level teaching;</li> <li>• increase the teachers' comfort in presenting inquiry-based and hands-on lessons; and,</li> <li>• provide hands-on training for technology and how to teach these topics in an inclusive classroom.</li> </ul> | K-5 classroom teachers from the following four school divisions: Stafford County, Spotsylvania County, Caroline County, and Fredericksburg City; Executive Director, Friends of the Rappahannock; President, Science Education Committee, Science Museum of Virginia | Yes  |
| 15.    | Friends of the Rappahannock Education Internship        | This collaboration provides teacher candidates with internships through which they learn to develop place-based science education curriculum and lesson plans. Candidates then implement these lessons in partner public schools that qualify for Title I funding or have reduced science instructional time. These internships place elementary and science education candidates alongside environmental science students to collaboratively educate regional public school students. | The University of Mary Washington and Friends of the Rappahannock worked collaboratively with school division and building-level leadership to provide science education curricula that meet grade-specific Standards of Learning (SOL). The partnership provides additional resources, such as scholarships and knowledge of community organizations to pre-service teachers. The partnership increases teacher candidates' comfort-levels while working in place-based education settings.   | Administrators in the following school divisions: Stafford County, Fredericksburg City, and Spotsylvania County Public Schools; University of Mary Washington Department Chair Curriculum and Instruction (CUIN); Friends of the Rappahannock Executive Director     | Yes  |

| 1.     | Advanced Program Internship  | Internship placements are made with PreK-12 schools to ensure that prospective school administrators, through support, supervision, and evaluation, can demonstrate and apply the competencies enumerated in the Virginia Licensure Regulations for School Personnel and demonstrated by skillful school leaders.        | Field internship experiences are designed to assist the candidate with performance of the required program standards and competencies which must be demonstrated for the administration and supervision PreK-12 endorsement. Identified needs of the PreK-12 community are met through well-prepared and highly qualified principals and central office administrators. PreK-12 schools mentor these individuals for the betterment of student learning and possible employment as school leaders in their divisions. | Administrators in the following school divisions: Spotsylvania County, Stafford County, Fredericksburg City, Prince William County, King George County, Fauquier County, Caroline County, Orange County, and Alexandria City in collaboration with the University of Mary Washington College of Education Educational Leadership Program Department Chair for Foundations, Leadership, and Special Populations (FLSP) | Yes - MOUs sent to all partner school divisions in May 2012  |
| 2.     | Spotsylvania Collaboration on Internship                                     | To strengthen communication and the working relationship between the University of Mary Washington Educational Leadership Program and Spotsylvania County, the faculty works closely with the Assistant Superintendent for Human Resources to define appropriate experiences for Spotsylvania County Leadership interns. | This is an ongoing dialogue with Spotsylvania County Schools on what interns should be doing to meet school division needs while fulfilling embedded-experiences and specific-placement internship requirements.  | Assistant Superintendent for Human Resources Spotsylvania County Schools in collaboration with the University of Mary Washington College of Education Educational Leadership Program Department Chair (FLSP)  | No   |

| 1.     | Henrico County Public Schools  | Representatives from the school division have agreed to help support the Master of Education (MEd) and Certificate programs in Educational Leadership and Policy Studies through marketing and word of mouth. School division representatives will meet with the University of Richmond Director once a month through the EduLead partnership to discuss the degree and other initiatives in leadership development. | The school division has had numerous principal and associate principal vacancies over the past two years. The average age of the principals is lower than the other counties at 46. We have talked with county representatives and they agree that these vacancies and trends show a need for a quality leadership program to help fill this pipeline of school leaders.           | Dr. Chris Corrallo, Director of Staff Development, Henrico County Public Schools  | No   |
| 2.     | Chesterfield County Public Schools   | Representatives from the school division have agreed to help support the MEd and Certificate program in Educational Leadership and Policy Studies through marketing and word of mouth. School Division representatives will meet with the UR Director once a month through the EduLead partnership to discuss the degree and other initiatives in leadership development.  | The school division has a demand for new school leaders. Over the past two years there have been numerous principal openings due to movement out of the division and retirements. We have talked with the school division administration and they agree that these vacancies and trends show a need for a quality leadership program to help fill this pipeline of school leaders. | Mr. Harold Saunders, Assistant Director of Leadership, Chesterfield County Public Schools                               | Yes  |
| 3.     | Hanover County Public Schools  | Representatives from the school division have agreed to help support the MEd and Certificate programs in Educational Leadership and Policy Studies through marketing and word of mouth. Division representatives will meet with the UR Director once a month through the EduLead partnership to discuss the degree and other initiatives in leadership development.  | The school division has had a number of principal vacancies over the past two years. Many of the current staff are over the age of 50. We have talked with division personnel and they agree that these vacancies and trends show a need for a quality leadership program to help fill this pipeline of school leaders.  | Dr. Wade A. Valentino, Associate Superintendent of Policy and Administration, Hanover County Public Schools             | Yes  |
| 4.     | City of Richmond Public Schools  | Representatives from the school division have agreed to instruct their staff development team to support the MEd and Certificate programs in Educational Leadership and Policy Studies through marketing and word of mouth. School Division representatives will meet with the UR Director once a month through the EduLead partnership to discuss the degree and other initiatives in leadership development.       | The school division has had a number of principal vacancies over the past two years. Many of the current staff are over the age of 50. | 1.     | Teaching Associateship                                      | The Teaching Associateship is a full time semester-long (16 weeks) student teaching experience, supervised by university faculty/personnel. Teaching associates work closely with clinical instructors to further the educational goals of the school/classroom and to achieve the Virginia Standards of Learning (SOL). | The collaborative effort of the student teachers and the classroom teachers allows for increased instructional differentiation to cover a range of student groups in addressing the SOL.   | Curry School of Education, (Placement Director), Superintendent of Central Virginia school divisions: Albemarle County Schools, Charlottesville City Schools, Louisa County Schools, Fluvanna County Schools, Nelson County Schools, and Greene County Schools  | No   |
| 2.     | Clinical Instructor Training Program                        | The annual training session's focus is on advancing clinical instructors' coaching/mentoring skills when working with University of Virginia (UVA) teaching associates. Each year a topic of educational relevance (e.g., working with English Language Learners also is part of the training.                           | The training provides clinical instructors with relevant professional development and enhances their ability to monitor their own instructional capabilities.  | Curry School of Education, (Placement Director), Superintendents of Central Virginia school divisions: Albemarle County Schools, Charlottesville City Schools, Louisa County Schools, Fluvanna County Schools, Nelson County Schools, and Greene County Schools | No   |
| 3.     | Tutoring Program  | Curry School teacher education students enrolled in a semester-long course tutor students who are at-risk for academic failure and need individual attention in reading (elementary) and in content area reading comprehension (secondary).  | Teacher education student tutors enhance the schools' ability to address the diverse needs of at-risk students from K-12 and to increase academic success.   | Curry School of Education Placement Director; UVA Community Relations Office (Ida Lee Wooten); Superintendents of Central Virginia school divisions: Albemarle County and Charlottesville City Schools  | No   |
| 4.     | Mathematics, Men, Mission (M3)                              | Two-week summer camps for fifth-, sixth-, and seventh-grade boys provide instruction in advanced mathematics experiences. Tutoring is provided throughout the school year by mentors from the 100 Black Men of Central Virginia organization.  | Access to advanced mathematics courses in middle school often determines the curriculum trajectory in high school and the selection of college majors in the fields of science, mathematics, and engineering.  | Curry School of Education, and Superintendent of Central Virginia school divisions; Albemarle County Schools  | No   |
| 5.     | Phonological Awareness Literacy Screening (PALS) Assessment | After Curry Elementary Education students learn to administer PALS PreK and PALS 1-3 they assist local elementary schools with PALS testing.   | Using trained PALS administrators enables schools to focus attention on interpretation of results and delivery of instruction.   | Curry School of Education (Laura Smolkin) and Superintendents of Central Virginia school divisions: Albemarle County Schools and Charlottesville City Schools   | No   |
| 6.     | Smart Technologies Equipment Grant                          | Smart Technologies has provided the secondary Mathematics and Science Teacher Education programs with 24 Smart Boards for use in pedagogy courses on grounds/campus and for student teachers to use during their placements.   | Curry school faculty have worked with local schools to identify strong clinical instructors and to place Smart Boards in their classrooms to be used with student teachers in developing new ways to use technology in teaching mathematics and science. | Curry School of Education, Smart Technologies (Director of Educational Initiatives), and Superintendents of Central Virginia school divisions: Albemarle County Schools, and Charlottesville City Schools   | Yes  |

| 7.            | US Department of Education Fund for the Improvement of Postsecondary Education (FIPSE) Program | FIPSE has provided the secondary mathematics and science teacher education programs with funding to develop and assess technology preparation for mathematics and science teachers in local schools.   | Working with local school partners, Curry School is developing ways to use technology to enhance teaching and learning. This funding has allowed us to research the effectiveness of technology preparation models.     | Curry School of Education faculty; Superintendents of Central Virginia school divisions: Albemarle County Schools, Charlottesville City Schools. United States Department of Education          | Yes   |
| 8.            | After-School Buddies   | Some students in schools will need a tutor; some will need someone who spends a little time with them regularly. Our Essential Skills and Practicum students will be providing one-on-one interactions when requested.   | Outside home adult interaction (especially in rural areas, where there is not enough Big Brother/Big Sister involvement) supports the work of classroom teachers.   | Curry School of Education; Superintendents of Central Virginia school divisions: Albemarle City Schools, Charlottesville City Schools, and Fluvanna Middle School                               | No  |
| 9.            | Saturday Enrichment Program  | The Saturday Enrichment Program is an enrichment opportunity for gifted and/or high-ability students in kindergarten through fifth-grade.  | The program offerings are distributed to students across the Commonwealth. Additional sites in Warrenton and Culpepper have been added in response to school division requests.   | Curry School of Education (Gifted Education - Catherine Brighton, Carolyn Callahan, Tonya Moon, Carol Tomlinson) and Superintendents of Central Virginia school divisions                       | No  |
| 10.           | Summer Enrichment Program  | This residential summer program for gifted and talented students has a 29-year history at the University of Virginia. Students who are currently enrolled in grades four through 10 may apply to attend a two-week program session where curriculum emphasis is on extending a student's capabilities in problem-solving, creativity and critical examination, and evaluation of content-rich fields of study. | The program offerings extend that which is offered within the context of K-12 settings, meeting a specific demand for enrichment services for talented and gifted students in Virginia school divisions.                | Curry School of Education (Gifted Education) Catherine Brighton, Carolyn Callahan, Tonya Moon, Carol Tomlinson) and Superintendents of Central Virginia school divisions                        | No  |
| 11.           | McGuffey Reading Center's Diagnostic Service   | Partnerships and collaborations with faculty and graduate students from other program areas in the Curry School (Speech and Hearing, Clinical Psychology) identify the needs of at-risk readers through structured reading assessments.  | The Center serves students in PreK-12 schools throughout the Commonwealth who have struggled to learn to read. We serve 75-100 PreK-12 students each year with coordinated instructional services to their home school. | Curry School of Education (Reading, Latisha Hayes) and Superintendents of Central Virginia school divisions: Albemarle, Charlottesville, Fluvanna, Louisa, Nelson, Greene and others on request | No  |
| 12.           | McGuffey Reading Center's Remedial Services (Academic Year Tutorial)                           | Partnerships and collaborations with faculty and graduate students from other program areas in the Curry School (Speech and Hearing, Clinical Psychology) address the needs of at-risk readers through structured reading tutoring programs.   | The Center serves students in PreK-12 schools throughout the Commonwealth who have struggled to learn to read. We serve approximately 30 PreK-12 students each year and provide service to the classroom teachers.      | Curry School of Education (Communication Disorders, Special Education, Elementary, English Education, and Counseling: Latisha Hayes); Superintendents of Central Virginia school divisions      | No  |

| 13.    | Project Build: Bridges of Understanding to Inclusive Literacy Development | This partnership involves a bi-weekly faculty workshop focused on reading, writing, and research strategies, combined with art and technology, to improve K-5 literacy competencies. Teachers implement strategies, share results, discuss and analyze student work, and document successes in a schoolwide literacy manual.   | The partnership has resulted in a rich interdisciplinary curriculum focused primarily on nonfiction text, with an emphasis on writing to make sense of such texts using daily writing practice. SOL writing scores are consistently 97-100 percent since implementation.                                    | Curry School of Education (English Education) and Stony Point Elementary, Albemarle County Schools   | No   |
| 14.    | Virginia Severe Disabilities Consortium (SDC)                             | The practicum experience is designed via the SDC to allow students the opportunity to work closely with their supervisors to increase performances of students with severe disabilities.   | All teachers in the SDC are supervised in practicum experiences as they apply coursework in classroom settings. This allows classroom teachers to provide more appropriate and targeted instruction to children and to increase inclusionary practices when appropriate.                                    | Curry School of Education (Clinical and School Psychology); Superintendents of Central Virginia school divisions: Albemarle County Schools, Charlottesville City Schools, Culpeper Schools, Rockbridge Schools; Virginia School for the Deaf and the Blind | No   |
| 15.    | Training in Threat Assessment and Prevention of Bullying                  | Training sessions are provided for principals, school psychologists, and counselors by Curry School faculty. Resources and follow-up are provided.   | School divisions wish to strengthen their ability to detect and deter serious student threats and bullying.   | Curry School of Education (Clinical and School Psychology) in collaboration with Superintendents of Central Virginia school divisions  | No   |
| 16.    | Institutes on Academic Diversity  | Faculty provide annual professional development to educators from the Commonwealth of Virginia and beyond on topics related to meeting a broad range of learners' needs in general education classrooms. The institutes occur throughout the school year and summer (July: two-week institute; March: topical "Best Practices Institute;" and, the "Getting Started" Fall Symposium).  | Annual surveys to school division personnel determine the topics presented at each institute. With this PreK-12 data in hand, faculty are able to tailor the content of the professional development to meet K-12 educators' specific needs.  | Curry School of Education (faculty members Dr. Carol Tomlinson, Dr. Catherine Brighton, Dr. Tonya Moon); PreK-12 School Divisions (upon request)   | No   |
| 17.    | Differentiated Instruction Projects                                       | Faculty and graduate students in the Educational Psychology, Research, Evaluation, and Statistics; Curriculum, Teaching and Learning; and, Applied Developmental Science programs provide professional development and coaching for the administrators and teachers of Henry County. This includes direct professional development for educators and individual coaching of teachers (including classroom observations with constructive feedback and development of differentiated curricular materials). | Division leaders have identified the need for increased awareness of the needs of all learners, including those with high ability within the context of the mixed-ability general education classroom. This partnership was initiated by the school division and has been in place for five academic years. | Curry School of Education, Superintendents of Central Virginia school divisions: Henry County Schools, and Hempfield County Schools (Pennsylvania)   | No   |

| 18.    | Phonological Awareness Literacy Screening (PALS)        | Partnerships and collaborations with the Virginia Department of Education (VDOE) and the Virginia General Assembly assess the emerging reading ability of PreK-3 students.   | Approximately one quarter million PreK-3 students are screened for literacy development annually. Diagnosed needs are revealed to the classroom teacher. The Commonwealth's Early Intervention Reading Initiative (EIRI) meets these needs by providing additional instruction.   | Curry School of Education (Reading); VDOE; Superintendents of Central Virginia's 132 school divisions   | Yes  |
| 19.    | Speech-Language Pathology Practica                      | An American Speech-Language-Hearing Association (ASHA) certified, state-licensed Speech-Language Pathologist assigned to the school division provides clinical supervision for a master's degree student who is responsible for providing clinical services to identified PreK-12 students.  | Working with a speech-language pathologist, Curry School graduate students help to provide services as described in the Individualized Education Plan (IEP) for each student, extending the service provisions to a greater number of the school clientele. Training and supervision are prescribed by the Council on Academic Accreditation of the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association. | Curry School of Education (Communication Disorders); Superintendents of Central Virginia school divisions: Albemarle, Charlottesville, Chesapeake, Chesterfield, Greene, Fluvanna, Fairfax, Richmond City, Goochland County, and Madison Public Schools | Yes  |
| 20.    | Virginia Mathematics-Science Coalition                  | Participants in the coalition work to prepare classroom teachers for the mathematics specialist endorsement or to complete a masters of education degree with a concentration in the mathematics specialist field.   | Participants work with classroom teachers to increase mathematics content knowledge, assist administrators and teachers in identifying mathematical weaknesses among students, develop programs addressing these needs resulting in increased mathematics SOL scores, and provide mathematics leadership in the schools.  | Curry School of Education (Mathematics, Science) and Virginia Mathematics-Science Coalition school division members   | No   |
| 21.    | Young Women Leaders Program                             | One faculty member (Winx Lawrence) and 10 graduate students developed and are implementing a mentoring program for at risk middle school girls who are nominated by their teachers as showing academic promise. They are paired with 80 UVA undergraduate students who work with them throughout the year using a structured curriculum. | Data indicated that participants make substantial gains over matched peers on social, academic, and emotional (e.g., self-concept) measures.  | Curry School of Education; Superintendents of Central Virginia school divisions: Charlottesville City Schools, Albemarle County Schools, Fredericksburg County Schools, Alexandria City Schools, and Lynchburg City Schools                             | No   |
| 22.    | Practicum and Internships in School Psychology          | Doctoral students spend one or two days per week in selected school divisions working with school psychologists.   | Counseling and other services are provided to students at-risk for emotional and academic problems.   | Curry School of Education; Superintendents of Central Virginia school divisions: Charlottesville City, Albemarle County and Fluvanna County   | Yes  |

| 23.    | English Language Learners (ELL) Assessment and Planning Practicum Teacher Assistants | Students in the ELL Assessment and Planning Practicum course (EDIS457) work as teacher assistants with English as a Second Language (ESL) teachers for three hours per week for five to eight weeks. They also prepare materials and work with individual students and small groups.                              | The University students add to the interaction options for ELL students and support the work of the regular ELL teacher, benefiting the non-native English speaking students by offering one-on-one instruction.   | Curry School of Education (Curriculum, Instruction and Special Education Department); Superintendents of Central Virginia school divisions: Charlottesville City's and Albemarle County's ESL programs | No   |
| 24.    | Foreign Languages Professional Development in Southwest Virginia                     | Curry School faculty demonstrate technology-based instruction in foreign languages through a Web-based "Cine Con Clase."  | The program is offered in response to requests for strengthening instructional skills in foreign languages.  | Curry School of Education; Superintendents of Central Virginia school divisions: Wise County, Dickenson County and Russell County  | No   |
| 25.    | Southwest Virginia Early Learning and Literacy Project (SWELL)                       | Intervention in literacy approaches are provided to very young children to promote language development skills.   | Early and sustained intervention in communication and reading have been demonstrated to increase reading readiness and language development that is critical in low-income families.   | Curry School of Education; University of Virginia at Wise; Wise County; Early Head Start Program   | No   |
| 26.    | McGuffey Reading Center's Summer Reading Program                                     | This partnership and collaboration with local schools identifies and serves students with remedial reading needs through a summer tutorial program.   | We serve approximately 95 struggling readers from local schools every summer. Clinicians are primarily part-time graduate students who also are full-time teachers in local schools. Their experiences in the summer clinic result in more effective instruction in their home schools.        | Curry School of Education (CISE Department), Superintendent of Albemarle County Schools  | No   |
| 27.    | Safe Schools / Healthy Students  | Part of the federal Safe Schools/Healthy Students initiative, this project studies school climate with an emphasis on disciplinary structure and student support. We help plan and implement the project, provide some staff for mental health services, and expand the bullying prevention effort in all grades. | By combining the efforts of the community, schools, and university resources, the initiative provides for oversight and analysis of the bi-annual student surveys to measure progress, provides information about existing services and issues in the schools, and regularly reviews progress. | Curry School of Education (Dewey Cornell); Superintendents of Central Virginia school divisions: Albemarle County and Charlottesville City Schools   | Yes  |
| 28.    | Languages Across Borders   | This is a partnership and collaboration with local high schools to provide opportunities for peer mentoring of Spanish and English language learners through an after-school dual-language program. The program is facilitated by UVA faculty and ESOL/English/Spanish teachers at the school.                    | We serve approximately 20 students. Existing evidence suggests that their experiences in the program have resulted in improved cultural awareness, social connections with diverse peers, and second language use.   | Curry School of Education (CISE Department - Amamda Kibler); Dr. Pamela Moran, Superintendent of Albemarle County Schools  | No   |

| 1.     | The Virginia School University Partnership (VSUP)                            | VSUP links UVA with 26 central and northern Virginia school divisions to provide quality professional development for school administrators and teachers, better access to university resources and services, and increased opportunities for university faculty to conduct research related to school administrative needs. | VSUP provides for its school division members' leadership needs through a school leader preparation program which addresses administrative shortages in member divisions and a summer leadership institute that focuses on current issues in school administration.   | Curry School of Education (Dr. Pamela Tucker); VSUP Board of Directors (Andy Stamp); Superintendents of 26 Central and Northern Virginia school divisions | Yes  |
| 2.     | Fairfax Leadership Development Cohort  | Fairfax County and the Administration and Supervision Program Area collaborate on the delivery of an Masters of Education (MED) in Administration and Supervision. Students are selected jointly, and the courses are taught by a combination of Curry faculty and Fairfax administrators.                                   | The need for high quality leadership candidates for schools across the Commonwealth is well-documented. Although many candidates are available who are licensed, they often lack the demonstrated aptitude for leadership roles. By collaborating with Fairfax County, candidates are recruited who have demonstrated the skills and dispositions for leadership. | Curry School of Education (Dr. Pamela Tucker) and Dr. Jack D. Dale, Superintendent, Fairfax County Public Schools   | Yes  |

| 6.     | Richmond Early Reading First (RERF)                     | In August, we will close out our third and final Early Reading First (ERF) project. All three projects were funded by the United States Department of Education (USED) to train preschool teachers in early literacy, to upgrade preschool classrooms with early literacy materials, and to provide family literacy programs to parents in the City of Richmond. In collaboration with the Virginia Literacy Foundation, we have taken the knowledge gained, the teacher training, and parent programs developed during the ERF projects and created a more streamlined, cost effective model called Excellence in Children's Early Language and Literacy (ExCELL), which is now being offered in Richmond, Hampton Roads, and Northern Virginia. | Children with low literacy skills are at-risk for school success.   | VCU School of Education, the Literacy Institute at VCU and Richmond City Public Schools (RCPS)                             | Yes  |
| 7.     | Urban Educator Certificate Program                      | This program offers professional development designed to provide urban teachers with new approaches to use in reaching at-risk students. The VCU School of Education and J. Sargeant Reynolds Community College offer a summer institute and the possibility of earning a 15-credit Post-Baccalaureate Certificate in Urban Education.  | There is an identified set of instructional skills and understandings that have been found to make a difference in the success of urban children.                         | VCU School of Education and J. Sargeant Reynolds Community College   | Yes  |
| 8.     | Metropolitan Educational Research Consortium (MERC)     | MERC is a partnership of VCU and Richmond area school divisions working together to provide systematic, disciplined inquiry into public education.  | The school divisions identified the need to study practice-based issues that seemed to be influencing student success.  | VCU School of Education, MERC, Chesterfield, Colonial Heights, Henrico, Hanover, Hopewell, Powhatan, Richmond City Schools | Yes  |
| 9.     | Metropolitan Educational Training Alliance (META)       | META exists to enhance the professional development and training of teachers, administrators, and other educational personnel in the respective school divisions.   | META is an opportunity for the four school divisions to best use their resources to meet professional development needs.  | Chesterfield, Hanover, Henrico, Richmond City, and VCU   | Yes  |
| 10.    | The Virginia Center for Teaching International Studies  | The purpose is to enhance the teaching of international studies in Virginia's middle and high schools.  | Globalization has increased the need for middle and high schools to refine their curricula and instructional practices related to international studies.                  | VCU School of Education and the World Affairs Council of Greater Richmond  | Yes  |
| 11.    | VCU Project Certifying Online Virginia Educators (COVE) | The partnership established an online licensure program for special educators in Superintendents' Regions I and VIII. The program provides full professional licensure in Special Education General Curriculum K-12.  | There continue to be many individuals teaching under provisional licenses.  | The partnership includes system administrators, teachers, and VCU faculty.   | No (only with Virginia Department of Education - VDOE)   |

| 7.     | Project ALL  | The partnership establishes a principal development program for Richmond City Schools.  | The Department of Educational Leadership and Richmond City Schools received a grant to develop an urban principal development program. This program targets both the issue of principal retirements and the need for new principals and the need for principals with a strong understanding of instructional leadership.   | The partnership includes VCU educational leadership faculty and Richmond City School administrators and teachers.   | Yes  |
| 8.     | Next Generation Leadership Academy (NGLA)                                    | Staff development leaders in EduLead's four partner school divisions assist in the development and delivery of NGLA programming. NGLA morning speakers are university experts in their fields. After large group morning sessions, NGLA participants gather by division and experience division-specific activities and discussion, led by expert leaders from their own school divisions.  | To support the preparation of aspiring school leaders in EduLead's four partner school divisions, NGLA provides instructional, transformational and organizational leadership development through a combination of coursework and practical application. Sessions address: What is Leadership, Group Dynamics, Ethics, Leading Change, Leading and Communicating, Educational Leadership in Action, and Book Discussion by a nationally known author.              | Collaborators include: University of Richmond, Virginia Commonwealth University, Chesterfield County Schools, Hanover County Schools, Henrico County Schools, Richmond Public Schools, Challenge Discovery, EduLead, individual leadership consultants. Funding partners include: Altria Group, Genworth Foundation, partner school divisions.                                      | Yes  |
| 9.     | Leaders in Transition Summer Institute (LIT)                                 | A curriculum committee, consisting of representatives from the four partner school divisions and EduLead, develops the curriculum for LIT. Following EduLead's spirit of regional collaboration, LIT session facilitators include experts from partner school divisions, corporate partners, the Virginia Department of Education (VDOE), EduLead's leadership coaching staff, and leaders in education and professional development throughout Virginia. | A three-day residential institute, LIT supports school leaders' success. LIT offers professional development for newly assigned principals and a member of their leadership team, early career principals and principals serving hard-to-staff schools. Participants experience a variety of sessions that address the concepts and skills critical to the success of schools and school leaders. Participants leave the Institute with a 90-Day Plan for success. | Collaborators include: Virginia Commonwealth University, University of Richmond, Chesterfield County Schools, Hanover County Schools, Henrico County Schools, Richmond Public Schools, individual leadership consultants including facilitators from VDOE and Fairfax County Schools, EduLead. Funding partners include: Robins Foundation, Altria Group, partner school divisions. | Yes  |

| 10.    | EduLead Leadership Coaching Project (ELCP)                                   | EduLead coaches support principal goals and growth for 12 – 24 months. Partner divisions assist in the assignment of coaches and facilitating principal/coach gatherings throughout the year. To promote true trust and growth, coaching conversations are confidential – coaches communicate with EduLead but do not discuss coaching conversations with school divisions. This evidences significant trust from partner divisions. | EduLead and partner divisions recognize that principals can benefit from quality, confidential leadership coaching, especially when coaches are skilled former principals trained in a highly-regarded leadership coaching model. Coaching utilizes skilled questioning and varying levels of instructive and facilitative guidance. Principals participate in a 360 survey regarding their leadership. This leadership “snapshot” serves as content for coaching conversations. | Collaborators include: Virginia Commonwealth University, University of Richmond, Chesterfield County Schools, Hanover County Schools, Henrico County Schools, Richmond Public Schools, New Teacher Center, EduLead. Funding partners include: Altria Group, partner school divisions. | Yes  |
| 11.    | Powerful Partnerships (P2)   | An element of ELCP, EduLead and Henrico co-plan and co-deliver programming in support of Henrico’s leadership development and succession planning model. The P2 partnership works with current school principals to ensure associate principals have the practical experiences and mentor guidance necessary to prepare them to become the next generation of skilled, successful school leaders in Henrico County.                  | P2 supports efforts to ensure skilled leadership is in place in every Henrico County school and to address Henrico’s need for succession planning. Forty-three Henrico principals meet seven times a year in small groups, facilitated by EduLead coaches, to discuss their skill, comfort and strategies as they actively mentor associate principals (who are being groomed for future principalships).  | Collaborators include: Virginia Commonwealth University, University of Richmond, Henrico County Schools, EduLead. Funding partners include: Altria Group, Henrico County Schools.   | Yes  |

| 12.    | Partnering for Excellence Program (PEP)                                      | PEP is unique to Richmond Public Schools. PEP facilitates professional dialogue and collaboration among Richmond middle school principals and the business community. Key elements of PEP include individualized leadership profiles, principals' development plans and goals, partnering with corporate executives, conversation circles (to discuss goal progress), and leadership seminars led by respected business leaders. | Middle school principals engage with successful corporate executives to explore best practices for highly effective leadership. The goal is to build a cadre of principals with powerful, focused leadership behaviors. Partnerships also foster solid relationships between the corporate community and Richmond Schools and help build community support/recognition for the work occurring in Richmond Public Schools. | Collaborators include: University of Richmond, Virginia Commonwealth University, Richmond Public Schools, Altria Group, Capital One Financial Corporation, Dominion Virginia Power, Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond, Genworth Financial, Hunton and Williams LLP, Markel Corporation, Media General, Inc., Troutman Sanders LLP., and EduLead. | 1.     | Southwest Virginia Professional Education Consortium                                     | The purpose of this program is to develop a cadre of clinical faculty and mentors who are exemplary models of effective teaching for student teachers and beginning teachers. The program also develops and nurtures leadership abilities and exemplary practice in faculty and mentors while facilitating cooperation and communication among consortium members. | This grant-funded program addresses the recruitment and retention of qualified teachers through training faculty and mentors who work with pre-service teachers. Additionally, it addresses the need to improve mentor programs and provide meaningful professional development opportunities.   | Higher Education participants: Roanoke College, Hollins University, Radford University, and Virginia Tech, with Sue Magliaro, contact; Public Schools participants: Roanoke City, Roanoke County, Botetourt, Craig, Floyd, Giles, Montgomery, Pulaski, Radford City, and Salem City, with central office administrators as contacts | Yes  |
| 2.     | Montgomery County Public Schools (MCPS)-Teaching American History Grant (grant extended) | The purpose of this program is the acquisition of history content knowledge and the development of teaching skills in PreK-12 teachers.  | This grant is aimed at improving the teaching of U.S. History in MCPS, as ascertained by a needs survey and by Standards of Learning test results.   | MCPS-Sharon Zucherwar, social studies supervisor and David Hicks and Thomas Ewing, Virginia Tech  | Yes  |
| 3.     | America on the World Stage - Teaching American History Grant                             | David Hicks of Virginia Tech serves on the Editorial Review Board to evaluate teacher work products; he also serves on the Advisory Board for the Transatlantic Teacher Exchange Program, as part of the grant.  | David Hicks, alongside Pat Hughes and Heather Streets, evaluated a series of lesson materials that were developed by teachers who participated in the grant. David Hicks also worked on the rubric and the focus for the types of works in which teachers should be engaging.                    | Albemarle County, Charlottesville City, Greene County, Madison County, and Orange County Public Schools, with Andy Mink serving as contact person from the University of Virginia   | Yes  |
| 4.     | Library of Congress, Teaching through Primary Sources Grant                              | This grant focuses on using historical sources to teach about race and relations.  | Through this grant David Hicks, in Social Studies Education at Virginia Tech, supports Montgomery County Public School teachers and the social studies supervisor as they work to redesign their fifth-grade curriculum, incorporating the use of primary sources in social studies instruction. | Virginia Tech Social Studies Education faculty member, David Hicks and Montgomery County Public Schools Social Studies Supervisor, Sharon Zucherwar   | No   |

| 5.     | Virginia Tech's PhysTEC Project: Inspiring Students To Pursue Physics Teaching  | PhysTEC is a collaborative project that is focused on the following: (1) increasing the number of highly qualified high school physics teachers; (2) improving the quality of physics and physical science teacher education; and, (3) spreading best practices ideas throughout the physics teacher community while transforming physics departments to engage in preparing physics teachers.  | Through the Physics Outreach programs, prospective teachers have opportunities to engage K-12 students in local schools with physics and robotics activities. A Physics Teacher-in-Residence plays a key role in the program by recruiting future teachers and serving as a mentor to future physics teachers.                         | Virginia Tech Physics Department staff: John Semonetti and Leo Pillonen; Virginia Tech School of Education: George Glasson and Brenda Brand; participating school divisions providing clinical faculty mentors--primarily clinical faculty representing Montgomery and Roanoke Counties and the cities of Radford, Roanoke and Salem | Yes  |
| 6.     | Virginia Career VIEW (Vital Information for Education and Work)   | Virginia Career VIEW provides career and educational resources and activities for Virginia residents from kindergarten through eighth-grade.  | Virginia Career VIEW provides hands-on activities and printed activities for grade levels K-8 through a free Web site: www.vacareerview.org . Virginia Career VIEW also conducts free counselor/educator training workshops on utilizing materials and activities with students and clients. | Virginia Department of Education: Career Clusters in Virginia; Association of Computer-based Systems for Career Information (ACSCI); Contact and direct supervisor of VIEW, Lolita Hall, Virginia Department of Education  | Yes  |
| 7.     | Montgomery County Public Schools/Virginia Tech FIRST (For Inspiration and Recognition of Science and Technology) Robotics Project | High school students enhance their application of Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics (STEM) concepts through hands-on applications mirroring real-world processes, which increase the numbers of students from underrepresented groups in STEM fields. College students are provided authentic opportunities for facilitating problem-solving experiences with high school students, applying the engineering design process, and developing capacity to plan, lead, and participate in teaming processes. | This program addresses the need to provide students with STEM-related experiences.   | Three high school teachers from Montgomery County Public Schools: Michael Collier, Tiffany Anton, and Charles Odum   | No   |

| 8.     | Project ESTEEM (Exploring Strategies to Engage and Empower Minority Students) | ESTEEM was designed as a sustainable community-based project focused on the enhancement of cultural identity, self-esteem, and self-efficacy in elementary-level minority children in Montgomery County. The project is designed to positively influence conceptions of identity through meaningful representations of culture through literacy integrated with science, mathematics, and the arts. | In the local schools, it is common for African American/biracial/minority children to be in classrooms in which they are the only representatives of their ethnic groups. There are few to no elements in the local community with which minority children can identify. Minority children need support to build a strong sense of cultural identity.  | Project ESTEEM is an after-school program that involves a collaborative effort including the following: (a) Virginia Tech School of Education Faculty (Brenda Brand, Mary Alice Barksdale, and doctoral students); (b) Radford University School of Education faculty (Dr. T. Wallace); (c) the Community Group of Montgomery County; (d) the Christiansburg Institute; (e) Montgomery County Public Schools; and, (f) Christiansburg Primary School. | No   |
| 9.     | * Training and Technical Assistance Center (TTAC)                             | TTAC works to improve the educational opportunities and to contribute to the success of children and youth with disabilities. TTAC services increase the capacity of schools, school personnel, service providers, and families to meet the needs of students with disabilities.  | TTAC addresses and meets the needs of students with disabilities in grades PreK-12.  | Special Education Directors in the following school divisions: Alleghany, Botetourt, Covington, Craig, Danville, Floyd, Franklin, Henry, Martinsville, Montgomery, Patrick, Pittsylvania, Roanoke City, Roanoke County, Salem, Bland, Bristol, Buchanan, Carroll, Dickenson, Galax, Giles, Grayson, Lee, Norton, Pulaski, Radford, Russell, Scott, Smyth, Tazewell, Washington, Wise, and Wythe   | Yes  |
| 10.    | Northern Virginia School Counseling Leadership team (SCLT)                    | Collaboration between district school counseling supervisors/directors and counselor education program faculty creates effective working relationships in support of effective school counselors and school counseling programs. This partnership includes summits organized and hosted by SCLT to meet identified needs of practicing school counselors from participating school districts.       | School needs targeted are as follows: (a) to maintain lines of communication between local PreK-12 school counseling supervisors/directors and university counselor education program faculty; (b) to share information on practicum and internship placements, job fairs, and school counseling issues; and, (c) to provide professional development programs related to 21st century school counseling programs. | Representatives from the following PreK-12 school districts: Alexandria, Arlington, Fairfax, Loudoun, Prince William, and Spotsylvania; Faculty members from the following universities with counselor education programs: George Mason University, George Washington University, Marymount University, and Virginia Tech   | No   |

| 11.    | Gateways to Algebraic Motivation, Engagement, and Success (GAMES)                          | The GAMES Project is a three-year, National Science Foundation funded program addressing the need to develop transformative learning experiences that leverage video games and mobile technologies. The focus is to target the learning of pre-algebraic fraction concepts in middle school students by examining links between motivation, engagement, and fraction proficiency.   | According to mathematics educators and researchers, students' development of measurement concepts for fractions mark a critical point in their progression toward algebra-readiness. Most grade six students commonly rely on part-whole conceptions alone. However, students who learn to sequence, partition, and iterate – as in measuring fractional sizes – go on to construct and conceptualize splitting operations, developing a distinct advantage for algebra-readiness. Thus, a major goal of the GAMES Project is to support the constructions of splitting concepts by designing digital video games that require students to coordinate sequencing, partitioning, and iterating operations in goal-directed activities. | The team includes a coalition of three colleges at Virginia Tech (Liberal Arts and Human Sciences, Science, and Engineering), with Michael Evans, as contact; the Danville Public School System in Danville, Virginia, with Andrew Tyrrell, Assistant Superintendent for Instruction, as contact; and, the Institute for Advanced Learning and Research in Danville, Virginia, with Dana Silicki, as contact. | Yes  |
| 12.    | Studio STEM: Engaging Middle School Students in Networked Science and Engineering Projects | Studio STEM is an after-school program that implements and evaluates an inquiry-based studio experience supported by information and communication technologies. The program uses engineering design activities that integrate digital modeling and social networking to engage students in investigating concepts and skills in science, technology, engineering, and mathematics. | Studio STEM engages students in learning by capturing their situational, short-term interest in STEM and information and communication technology (ICT) topics and developing these short-term interests into longer-term interests.  | Virginia Tech School of Education: Michael Evans (Principal Investigator), Carol Brandt, and Brett Jones; University of Kentucky: Christine Schnittka; Shawsville Middle School: Dave Dickinson, Principal; and Boys and Girls Club of the New River Valley: Richelle Price   | Yes  |
| 13.    | Digital Collaborative  | This collaborative illustrates the impact of multi-modal teaching practices on pupil motivation and understanding, as well as showcases the nature of interactions between secondary pupils and English Education candidates teaching in a digital environment. Teacher candidates experience real digital writing classrooms and serve as mentors to diverse students.             | The K-12 classroom staff, Fredericksburg Academy, approached Virginia Tech in an effort to encourage college-level writing from secondary students. Virginia Tech student teachers give feedback to high school students on their compositions.   | Katie Dredger, Virginia Tech; Susanne Nobles, Fredericksburg Academy; Jenny Martin, Virginia Tech; Amanda Biviano, Virginia Tech  | Yes  |

| 14.    | Substance Abuse Prevention Grant  | Partners collaborated in the development of a parent survey to measure Parent Perception of Youth Substance Use. There also was an external consultant for a Governor's Office for Substance Abuse Prevention Grant to fund a parenting program, focusing on substance abuse prevention for homeless families. Partners assisted with a community workshop focused on substance abuse prevention. | This partnership targeted the area of substance abuse prevention for youth and their families by exploring the effectiveness of a current program and gathering data from parents regarding perceived substance use.   | Fairfax County Public Schools Safe and Drug-Free Youth Section: Diane Eckert and Clarence Jones; Virginia Tech Counselor Education faculty   | No   |
| 15.    | Leading in Reading (LnR)  | Leading in Reading is a professional development grant designed to increase teachers' knowledge in research-based reading strategies. Teachers participated in ongoing workshops, implemented new reading initiatives, and measured results. Results were shared at a one-day conference at the end of the school year.   | Analysis of SOL achievement data underscored the challenges that both geographic location and financial need introduced in these districts. None of the school divisions made Adequate Yearly Progress for the past school year. In looking at the reading scores across the school divisions in grades three, four, and five, the pass rates typically fell at or below the state scores. | Virginia Tech: Heidi Anne Mesmer; School Divisions: Bristol City, Federal Programs Administrator; Buchanan, Principals; Dickenson, Director of Instruction; Giles, Principal; Grayson, Principals; Galax City, Assistant Principal; Pittsylvania, Principal; Washington County, Principals; Wythe, Director of Elementary and Middle Education     | No   |
| 16.    | Hopewell City Public Schools in School Improvement  | Virginia Tech is acting as an external partner for the high school, which is in school improvement. We are providing professional development opportunities through the Richmond Center.  | Efforts are towards supporting the transformation required in a local high school that is in school improvement. Efforts have been in the areas of mathematics and reading literacy with support for administrative efforts to create a learning environment.  | Virginia Tech contacts, Carol Cash and Betti Kreye, working with Hopewell High School's principal and faculty  | Yes  |
| 17.    | Center for Creative Technologies in the Arts (CCTA), with subsidiary, Integrated Design+Education+Arts Studio (IDEAS) | This partnership works to conduct research and develop materials that use the arts and technology to develop critical and creative thinking skills in PreK-12 environments. The program initiates collaborations between Virginia Tech faculty and PreK-12 teachers to develop and integrate products that connect the arts and technology to schools and classrooms.                             | IDEAS and CCTA are positioned to bring research and programming to combine the arts and technology to teach content standards while developing critical and creative thinking skills. All of these components have been identified as essential to current teaching and learning needs.  | Virginia Tech participants include faculty from the School of Education, the School of Visual Arts, and CCTA working with faculty in schools in the following school divisions: Craig, Floyd, Franklin, Giles, Montgomery, Patrick, Pulaski, Roanoke, and Wythe Counties, as well as the cities of Roanoke and Salem. Liesl Baum is head of IDEAS. | Yes  |

| 18.    | Kindergarten to College Program                           | Virginia Career VIEW co-sponsored the Kindergarten to College program for fifth-grade students to experience the Virginia Tech campus (2011 and 2012) through a field trip and STEM experiences at Virginia Tech. Virginia Career VIEW related STEM majors to careers and provided students with packets to promote college and career exploration. | This partnership exposes Title I school fifth-grade students to a college campus, is geared towards first-generation college students, allows students to meet current college students, and allows students to understand different STEM-based majors and college programs, such as the Corps of Cadets.  | Virginia Tech School of Education (Sue Magliaro, contact), STEM Collaboratory, Virginia Career VIEW, Physics Department, Virginia Tech Geosciences Museum, Project Learning Tree, Institute for Creativity, Arts, and Technology; school divisions of Prince William County, Montgomery County, Newport News, and Roanoke City; Contacts: Elementary Principals | No   |
| 19.    | Hurt Park Elementary as a Professional Development School | This partnership sees Virginia Tech School of Education faculty, under the leadership of elementary education program leader Mary Alice Barksdale, developing a professional development school relationship with Hurt Park Elementary.   | This partnership includes placement of Virginia Tech elementary education students at Hurt Park Elementary for field experiences, student teaching, and professional development experiences. For 2011-12, focus was on third-, fourth-, and fifth-grade teams in this school. Dr. Barksdale of Virginia Tech worked in the school each Monday, attending team meetings in the fall and providing professional development on comprehension and metacognition in the spring. | Virginia Tech, under the leadership of Mary Alice Barksdale; Hurt Park Elementary faculty and administration, Roanoke City Public Schools   | No   |

| 20.    | Blue Ridge Writing Project (BRWP)                       | This partnership supports teachers in Southwest Virginia as writers and teachers of writing in their classrooms.  | Virginia Tech School of Education supports the invitational summer institute of the BRWP with the support of a School of Education graduate student. Additionally, in the fall, Virginia Tech English Education teacher candidates partnered with Virginia Tech's English Department and BRWP fellows to offer college essay refinement to local high school seniors applying to college. | Virginia Tech English Education faculty and students; Virginia Tech English Department faculty; teachers and students from high schools in Southwest Virginia, including school divisions of the following counties and cities: Montgomery, Floyd, Giles, Pulaski, Roanoke, Craig, Botetourt, Wythe, Bland, Carroll, Patrick, Henry, Pittsylvania, Franklin, Bedford, Radford City, Roanoke City, and Salem City | Yes  |
| 21.    | 21st Century Community Learning Centers Grant           | Virginia Tech worked with Roanoke City Public Schools personnel to enhance opportunities for English language learners (ELLs) in an after-school program at Stonewall Jackson Middle School. We provided an adjunct faculty member who scheduled students and worked with staff. Between 2009-2012, we provided nine in-service activities. Pre-service teachers contributed 500+ clock hours of service-learning with ELLs in the program. | Stonewall Jackson Middle School was named an ELL Middle School Center for Roanoke City Public Schools in 2009. Most personnel lacked experience working with ELL, so Virginia Tech faculty provided much needed educational support as well as preservice teachers to work directly with students.  | Virginia Tech School of Education/English as a Second Language Education Program: Kris Tilley-Lubbs, contact; Roanoke City Public Schools' Stonewall Jackson Middle School; Contacts: Principal and faculty members  | Yes  |

| 8.     | Thurgood Marshall Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics Project (STEM) | This summer staff from the Thurgood Marshall Scholarship Program partnered with the Professional Education Programs Unit to host the on-campus STEM Institute for college sophomores, juniors, and seniors in the STEM fields. These students are interested in teaching middle school.   | This project is in response to the national need for students to pursue careers in Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics at the postsecondary education level. The program will increase minority participation in the STEM fields.              | Wanetta Jones-Allen, Director of Teacher Quality and Retention Program; Dr. Delores R. Greene, VSU                      | Yes  |
| 9.     | Fort Lee Summer STEM Initiative  | This summer Fort Lee has partnered with the Professional Education Programs Unit to have a STEM summer initiative. Middle school students in the sixth-grade will come to VSU for two hours, four days a week to receive lessons in STEM areas. Fridays will be designated for field trips that apply to STEM areas.  | The Professional Education Programs Unit has developed this partnership to address the need for more participation of students in STEM-related career fields. This partnership addresses the national and state foci on STEM education.                      | Koy Grant, Director of After-school and Summer Initiatives, Fort Lee; Dr. Delores R. | 10.    | Gaining Real Opportunities With Students (GROWS) Program; The Cameron Foundation   | This summer the department will host the third annual GROWS summer program. This on-campus camp will include 22 high school juniors interested in becoming teachers. The students completed a rigorous curriculum from the Introduction to Teaching course.   | The GROWS project is a partnership with Petersburg City and Dinwiddie County Public Schools to recruit academically talented students into the teaching profession. The goal is to have students choose Virginia State University as their school of choice. | Marie Grant, Principal Investigator, Cameron Foundation; Dr. Delores R. Greene, VSU                                     | Yes  |
| 11.    | Male Teachers Molding Minds (3M Society and Big Brothers and Big Sisters)          | The 3M Society is a male teacher recruitment initiative at Virginia State University designed to encourage males to become educators. Male pre-candidates and candidates are mentored by university faculty and public school male educators. Members of 3M, in turn, mentor students in Petersburg's Peabody Middle School to encourage students to excel in school. | The 3M Society is responding to the shortage of male teachers in the profession by providing mentors and workshops for members. The members are then required to assist public school students to excel and achieve in the classroom.                        | Dr. Yardley Farquason, Principal, Peabody Middle School; Dr. Silas Christian, VSU                                       | Yes  |

| 1.     | Advisory Board   | The Advisory Board is a collaborative group of leaders from participating school divisions designed to provide insight and suggestions for program improvement and to develop partnerships.   | The partnership strengthens the outcome of candidates in the program by building leadership capacity. By working collaboratively with school divisions, we are able to better identify the needs of entry-level administrators and offer a program which aims to focus on those needs. | Dr. Daniel J. Grounard, Superintendent, Nottoway County Public Schools; Mr. Willie Bell, Petersburg City Public Schools; Dr. Michele Belle, Buckingham County Public Schools; Dr. Lyle Evans, Chesterfield County Public Schools; Dr. Irene Williams, Richmond City Public Schools; Dr. David Clarke, Dinwiddie County Public Schools; Dr. Charles Harris, Sussex County Public Schools; Dr. Justina Osa, VSU   | Yes  |
| 2.     | Collaborative Internship   | Through collaboration with the Educational Administration and Supervision Advisory Board, the internship program was revised to include a full-time summer placement at an alternate setting, other than their own school, for candidates to experience a variety of work settings. All candidates were interviewed and invited to complete internships during the Summer 2012. | By providing full-time internship experiences across a variety of settings; candidates gain a better understanding of the various needs of local school divisions. School divisions build their own leadership capacity.   | Contacts for Participating School Divisions: Mr. Harold Saunders, Ms. Francine Bouldin, Ms. Tina Martin, Chesterfield County Schools; Ms. Sharon Yates, Dinwiddie County Public Schools; Mr. Roy Walton, Nottoway County Public Schools; Mr. Larry Eminhizer, Prince George County Public Schools; Ms. Irene Williams, Richmond City Public Schools; Mr. Willie Bell, Petersburg City Public Schools; Ms. Tinkhani Hargrove, Henrico County Public Schools; Dr. Michelle Beavers, VSU | Yes  |
| 3.     | Tiers of Possibility Phase II Grant-Cameron Foundation                       | This is Phase II of the Tiers of Possibilities grant to build a leadership and mentoring program for future teachers.   | This collaboration is to build leadership and interest in education careers for persons within the Petersburg and Dinwiddie Public School divisions.   | Ms. Sharon Yates, Ms. Marie Grant, Mr. Dave Clark, Dinwiddie County Public Schools; Ms. Gale Wade, Petersburg City Public Schools; Dr. Michelle Beavers, VSU  | Yes  |

| 4.     | Richmond City SchoolsDepartment of Instruction                           | Richmond City Public Schools provided an externship placement for doctoral candidate, Mr. Aaron Dixon. In return, Mr. Dixon is conducting an action research project which involves determining the efficacy of the Algebra Readiness Initiative (ARI) in the Richmond Public Schools. | The activity seeks to provide data regarding student performance in Algebra specifically, and mathematics as a whole. Student test data suggest that mathematics scores are poor in the district. Once data are collected at the project's completion, current policies and practices will be evaluated and a determination will be made as to changes necessary for improvement. | Dr. Irene Williams, Executive Director of Elementary Education; Dr. Judith Brooks-Buck, VSU                             | Yes  |
| 5.     | Richmond Public Schools (RPS)Professional Development Program            | Richmond Public Schools provided an externship placement for doctoral candidate, Almetia Strothers. In return, Mrs. Strothers is conducting action research which examines reasons for the limited pool of assistant principals in the school division.                                | The project is designed to query current assistant principals using a phenomenological research approach to unmask reasons why they sought the positions, and to identify skills, knowledge, and dispositions that result in success for persons in the positions. Ultimately, training modules will be developed for use with prospective assistant principals.                  | Dr. Darline Currie, Director of Professional Development, RPS; Dr. Judith Brooks-Buck, VSU                              | Yes  |
| 6.     | Richmond Public Schools Career and Technical Education Program               | Richmond Public Schools provided an externship placement for doctoral candidate, April Kelley- Hill. In return, Mrs. Kelley-Hill is developing the New Economics and Finance Curriculum for the school division.   | The necessity for the project resulted from a General Assembly mandate to teach economics and finance for all Virginia high school students. The candidate is researching neighboring school division implementation policies, developing a budget, writing curriculum, and identifying instructional resources.  | Darlene M. Smith, Instructional Specialist, RPS; Dr. Judith Brooks-Buck, VSU  | Yes  |
| 7.     | Chesterfield County Public SchoolsDepartment of Instruction              | Chesterfield County Public Schools provided an externship placement for doctoral candidate, David Ellena. In return, Mr. Ellena is tasked with evaluating the Read 180 Program used with middle school special education students.   | The necessity for the project resulted from the poor special education subgroup performance on the reading Standards of Learning (SOL) assessment. The project examined student growth in reading during the current school year.   | Dr. Robert Wingfield, Director of Instruction, Chesterfield County Public Schools; Dr. Judith Brooks-Buck, VSU          | Yes  |

| 8.     | Virginia Department of Correctional Education Academic Programs  | The Virginia Department of Correctional Education provided an externship placement for doctoral candidate, Audrey Cummings-Johnson. In return, Mrs. Cummings-Johnson is tasked with examining teacher "Mind Sets" in adult education programs. | The notion of teacher "Mind Sets" was suggested by Dr. Carol Dweck. Her theory suggests that when people are engaged in activities that they feel are purposeful, they develop expertise in the area. The research surveys teachers in the adult Virginia education programs.  | Dr. Anita Prince, Assistant Superintendent for Academic Programs, Virginia Department of Corrections; Dr. Judith Brooks-Buck, VSU   | Yes  |
| 9.     | Virginia Department of Education (VDOE) Special Education  | The VDOE provided an externship placement for doctoral candidate, Joseph Smith. Mr. Smith is examining the dropout rates of students with disabilities in designated regions of Virginia.  | The project is designed to capture reasons for the current dropout rate among students with disabilities in Virginia. The project will serve as a basis for the development of strategies to reduce the dropout rate with this population.   | Dr. Tyrone Bailey, Monitoring Specialist, Special Education, VDOE; Dr. Judith Brooks-Buck, VSU  | Yes  |
| 10.    | Mecklenburg County Public Schools Assistant Superintendent for Instruction   | Mecklenburg County Public Schools provided an externship placement for Doctoral Candidate, Rebertha Pope-Matthews. Mrs. Pope-Matthews is examining the impact of cultural competence on at-risk student performance.                           | The project is designed to determine the impact of cultural competence on student performance in the New Beginnings Program offered in the school division.  | Dr. Kim F. Evans, Assistant Superintendent, Mecklenburg County Public Schools; Dr. Judith Brooks-Buck, VSU  | Yes  |
| 11.    | Charles City County Public Schools Superintendent's Office   | Charles City County Public Schools provided an externship placement for doctoral candidate, Olaniyi Lucas. Mrs. Lucas is examining student and teacher relationships and their impact on student performance.                                  | The project is designed to capture links between students' feelings about the teachers and their classroom performance. The assumption is that students who have positive relationships with teachers will perform better than peers who do not.   | Dr. Janet Crawley, Superintendent, Charles City County Public Schools; Dr. Judith Brooks-Buck, VSU  | Yes  |
| 12.    | Coalition for the Preservation of the Virginia School for the Deaf, Blind and Multi-Disabled at Hampton (Virginia) | The Virginia School for the Deaf, Blind and Multi-Disabled at Hampton was closed as a residential school about two years ago. At that time the Virginia General Assembly provided funds and options for a day school in the region.            | The project is designed to plan a charter to serve the population of students left without appropriate services with the closure of the residential facility. The students involved in the project have developed a prototype for a charter school, planned a budget, and presented the plans to community advocates in the Hampton/Newport News area. | The Honorable Mary T. Christian, Ph.D., Former Member, Virginia House of Representatives; Mr. Ralph Shelman, Executive Director, Virginia Centers for Independent Living; Dr. Judith Brooks-Buck, VSU | Yes  |
