

Virginia Racing Commission's Response to the Economic Analysis, conducted by the Virginia Department of Planning and Budget

The Commission does not consider the fee charged for background investigations to be a significant issue. In nearly all cases, the expenses of the investigations exceed the amount charged by the Commission, as specified in the regulation.