

12 VAC 30-141-90. Duration of eligibility.

- A. The effective date of FAMIS eligibility shall be ~~no earlier than~~ the first day of the month ~~in following the month the child was determined to meet~~ in which an application was received by the FAMIS central processing unit if the applicant met all eligibility factors for the program in that month. In no case shall a child's eligibility be effective earlier than the date of the ~~start of the program~~ child's birth and no earlier than August 1, 2001.
- B. Eligibility for FAMIS will continue for 12-months so long as the child meets all eligibility requirements. The parent, legal guardian, or authorized representative of the child must report all changes affecting eligibility when such changes occur. A change in eligibility will be effective the first of the month following expiration of a ten-day advance notice. Eligibility will be re-determined no less often than annually.
- C. Exception. If the child becomes an inpatient in an institution for mental disease or an inmate of a public institution, ineligibility will be effective the date that the child is admitted to the institution.
