U.S. Citizen who has never resided in U.S. (for example, born overseas to parents from Virginia)	N/A	Not eligible to register or vote in Virginia for any office
*Temporary registration is valid for all elections for which the voter is eligible through the federal election cycle or for 365 days after the most recent FPCA was received. If the voter uses the old Virginia Temporary Registration Form {no longer issued} the voter's registration is good for 1 election only.
If last date of residency entered, individual no longer maintains a residence in Virginia. According to Virginia instructions for the FPCA this information should be placed in box 6 if applicable. If no date entered, individual maintains residence. If the person has checked 1c and there is no last date of residence, use the date that the voter signed their application.
Registrar will need to determine from information provided on FPCA if voter is overseas due to employment. According to Virginia instructions for the FPCA this information should be placed in box 6 if applicable. We concluded that by marking 1(c) the voter affirms on this date that the voter was a resident of Virginia before departing the U.S. and their intent to return at some time in the future is uncertain.
