

Virginia Board of Long-Term Care Administrators
Policy on
Continuing Competency Hours for Dually-Licensed Administrators

At its meeting on October 28, 2008, the Board voted unanimously to allow persons who are dually licensed as nursing home administrators and assisted living facility administrators to count the continuing competency hours for both professions, requiring that only 20 hours be accrued to meet the requirements for renewal.