Remedial Education Update

Ms. Spruill, Regulatory Boards Administrator shared with the Board that the last Remedial Education training class had approximately 20 attendees. There are persons from various areas in the state such as Fairfax County permitting office, the state cooperation commission office as well as some building code officials who are assisting with teaching different segments of the class. She is happy to report that the classes are going well.

Continuing Education Workgroup

Mr. Olson shared that the Continuing Education Workgroup did a good job yesterday (June 23). He felt their actions were productive. They exhibited some “outside the box thinking” and they presented some new ideas and concepts for consideration; for instance, ways to eliminate the same code update classes being taken more than one time. These ideas and concepts will be compiled by staff and discussed at the August meeting. The Workgroup has a goal of October to have a continuing education plan to submit for consideration.

No Board action necessary.
