The Board for Contractors (“the Board”) is amending the Individual License and Certification Regulations to (i) update and clarify provisions of the regulation, to include ensuring that the regulation reflects current agency procedures and practices; (ii) ensure the regulation compliments current Virginia law and is clearly written and understandable; (iii) remove requirements in the regulation that are not necessary to protect the public welfare; and (iv) reduce regulatory burdens, while still protecting the public health, safety, and welfare.

The action makes significant changes to (i) the definitions section; (ii) provisions for application procedures; (iii) general requirements for licensure or certification; and (iv) sections pertaining to the Board’s disciplinary authority and prohibited acts.

Mandate and Impetus

List all changes to the information reported on the Agency Background Document submitted for the previous stage regarding the mandate for this regulatory change, and any other impetus that specifically prompted its initiation. If there are no changes to previously reported information, include a specific statement to that effect.

There are no changes to previously reported information.

Legal Basis

Identify (1) the promulgating agency, and (2) the state and/or federal legal authority for the regulatory change, including the most relevant citations to the Code of Virginia and Acts of Assembly chapter number(s), if applicable. Your citation must include a specific provision, if any, authorizing the promulgating agency to regulate this specific subject or program, as well as a reference to the agency's overall regulatory authority.

The promulgating agency is the Board for Contractors. Chapter 11 of Title 54.1 of the Code of Virginia enumerates the legal authority for the Board to administer the licensure and certification programs for tradesmen, gas fitters, liquefied petroleum gas fitters, natural gas fitter providers, water well systems providers, elevator mechanics, residential building energy analysts, backflow prevention device workers, and automatic fire sprinkler inspectors.

Section 54.1-1102 of the Code of Virginia states, in part:

- B. The Board shall promulgate regulations not inconsistent with statute necessary for the licensure of contractors and tradesmen and the certification of backflow prevention device workers, and for the relicensure of contractors and tradesmen and for the recertification of backflow prevention device workers, after license or certificate suspension or revocation.

In addition, § 54.1-201 of the Code of Virginia provides, in part:

- A. The powers and duties of regulatory boards shall be as follows:
 - 1. To establish the qualifications of applicants for certification or licensure by any such board, provided that all qualifications shall be necessary to ensure either competence or integrity to engage in such profession or occupation.
 - 5. To promulgate regulations in accordance with the Administrative Process Act (§ 2.2- 4000 et seq.) necessary to assure continued competency, to prevent deceptive or misleading practices by practitioners and to effectively administer the regulatory system administered by the regulatory board. The regulations shall not be in conflict with the purposes and intent of this chapter or of Chapters 1 (§ 54.1-100 et seq.) and 3 (§ 54.1- 300 et seq.) of this title.

Purpose

Explain the need for the regulatory change, including a description of: (1) the rationale or justification, (2) the specific reasons the regulatory change is essential to protect the health, safety, or welfare of citizens, and (3) the goals of the regulatory change and the problems it is intended to solve.

The General Assembly has charged the Board with the responsibility for regulating those who (i) engage, or offer to engage in, work as a tradesman (electrician, plumber, and HVAC technician), gas fitter, liquefied petroleum gas fitter, or natural gas fitter provider; (ii) engage in the drilling, installation, maintenance, or repair of a water well or water well system; (iii) engage in, or offer to engage in, work as an elevator mechanic or accessibility mechanic; (iv) engage in, or offer to engage in, work as a residential building energy analyst; (v) present themselves as a certified backflow prevention device worker; and (vi) perform or offer to perform inspections of automatic fire sprinkler systems, by requiring that such individuals obtain the appropriate licensure or certification.

The performing of trade-related work by those who lack sufficient expertise poses a risk to the public health, safety, and welfare. These risks include the potential for significant damage to property, personal injury, and death. In addition, the improper performance of trade-related work can pose a substantial risk of financial harm to property owners who will be responsible for assuming costs to correct or complete work that is defective.

The goals of this regulatory action are:

1. Updating and clarifying the provisions of the regulation. This includes ensuring the regulation reflects current agency procedures and practices;
2. Ensuring the regulation complements current Virginia law and is clearly written and understandable;
3. Remove requirements in the regulation that are not necessary to protect the public welfare; and
4. Reduction of regulatory burdens, while still protecting the public health, safety, and welfare.

Substance

Briefly identify and explain the new substantive provisions, the substantive changes to existing sections, or both. A more detailed discussion is provided in the “Detail of Changes” section below.

1. Section -10 is significantly revised. The definitions section is revised to incorporate numerous terms that are used in the regulation that are already defined in statute. The statutory meanings of these terms are incorporated by reference from applicable sections of Chapter 11 of Title 54.1 of the Code of Virginia. Several definitions are removed as they are not used in the regulation or are no longer necessary because the statutory definition is used. The following definitions have been added to the section: “address of record,” “applicant,” “application,” and “HVAC work.”
2. Section -20 is repealed. The section will be replaced by a new section (-25).
3. A new section (-25) is added, which provides for application procedures that reflect current agency practice and are consistent with application procedures for other DPOR programs.
4. Section -30 is significantly revised to make the provisions of the section clearer and similar to provisions for other DPOR programs. Provisions pertaining to the disclosure of criminal convictions are revised to better align the regulation with the provisions of § 54.1-204 of the Code of Virginia pertaining to criminal history.
5. Section -90 is revised to include the application fee for the addition of a tradesman designation. This provision is currently located in section -150.
6. Section -140 is revised to provide that the expiration date of a reinstated tradesman license is three years from the previous expiration date. This change is made to make the regulation consistent with statute, which provides for a three-year term of licensure.
7. Section -185 is significantly revised to make the provisions regarding the Board’s authority to impose disciplinary action clearer and to remove provisions which are duplicative of the prohibited acts in section -190.
8. Section -190 is significantly revised. The section is revised to clarify that the acts enumerated in the section subdivisions are prohibited and any violation may result in disciplinary action by the Board. Several subdivisions are revised for the purposes of clarity. Provisions pertaining to criminal convictions are revised to better align the regulation with the provisions of § 54.1-204 of the Code of Virginia.

Issues

Identify the issues associated with the regulatory change, including: 1) the primary advantages and disadvantages to the public, such as individual private citizens or businesses, of implementing the new or amended provisions; 2) the primary advantages and disadvantages to the agency or the Commonwealth; and 3) other pertinent matters of interest to the regulated community, government officials, and the public. If there are no disadvantages to the public or the Commonwealth, include a specific statement to that effect.

The primary advantages to the public and the regulated community are that the amendments to the regulation will:

1. Provide needed updating and clarification;
2. Reduce regulatory burdens, while still protecting the public health, safety, and welfare; and
3. Remove requirements in the regulation that are not necessary to protect the public welfare.

There are no identifiable disadvantages to the public. It is not anticipated that the regulatory change will create any substantial disadvantages to the regulated community.

The primary advantage of the regulatory change to the Commonwealth is that it will permit the agency to administer the licensure program more ably.

Requirements More Restrictive than Federal

List all changes to the information reported on the Agency Background Document submitted for the previous stage regarding any requirement of the regulatory change which is more restrictive than applicable federal requirements. If there are no changes to previously reported information, include a specific statement to that effect.

There are no changes to previously reported information.

Agencies, Localities, and Other Entities Particularly Affected

List all changes to the information reported on the Agency Background Document submitted for the previous stage regarding any other state agencies, localities, or other entities that are particularly affected by the regulatory change. If there are no changes to previously reported information, include a specific statement to that effect.

Public Comment

Summarize all comments received during the public comment period following the publication of the previous stage, and provide the agency’s response. Include all comments submitted: including those received on Town Hall, in a public hearing, or submitted directly to the agency. If no comment was received, enter a specific statement to that effect.

No public comments were received during the Proposed stage.
