However, the Board rejects the Amended Summary and denies a license. The Board denies the application based upon the record, including the information obtained from the Central Criminal records Exchange, and in consideration of the criteria outlined in §54.1-204. The Board finds that based on the extent and nature of the applicant's past criminal activity, and the amount of time that has elapsed since the applicant was last involved in the commission of a crime, the applicant is unfit or unsuited to be granted a license.
