Bill Ferguson provided a report for the pre-license education course he audited on January 29, 2019, by an approved provider, Bauls Academy of Learning. A handout of the report was distributed to the Board members and Staff present.

Education
Audit

The course to be audited was not available at the date, and time listed on the website. On January 31, 2019, Board staff reviewed the education provider's website. The education provider's website had been revised to list continuing education classes for the same subjects for January 31, 2019

Reporting:

A course attendance roster has not been submitted classes held on January 29, 30, or 31, 2019. Review of the course attendance roster file indicated there are course attendance rosters previously submitted that were not in the correct format.

Recommendation:

- Education provider should submit their class schedule to the Board for Contractors and submit any class schedule changes to the Board for Contractors prior to the date of the scheduled class.
- Education provider should list their class schedule on their website and make any class schedule changes prior to the date of the scheduled class.
- Education provider should review the procedures for submitting a course attendance roster file with the Board for Contractors education staff.

Mr. Oliver offered a motion to adopt the report and Mr. O'Dell seconded the motion.

The motion was approved with a vote of 10-0-0. Ayes: Oliver, Redifer, Dyer, Ayres, Bynum-Colman, Tomlin, Magruder, Pace, Middleton, and O'Dell. Nays: None Abstain: None Absent: Trenary, Mitchell, Hux, and Johnson.

Bill Ferguson provided a report for the pre-license education course he audited on February 7, 2019, by an approved provider, Blue Ridge Community College. A handout of the report was distributed to the Board members and Staff present.

On February 7, 2019, staff of the Board for Contractors audited a gas fitter continuing education class given by an approved provider, Blue Ridge Community College. This was an unannounced audit as the provider was not aware that Board staff would be in attendance.

Education
Audit

Recommendation:

- The class covered changes in the Fuel Gas Code as contained in the power point presentation. The class consisted of 35 minutes of instruction. The gas fitter continuing education course requirement is one hour (educational standard = 50 minutes). The community college coordinator might communicate with this instructor and other community college class instructors of this subject to determine if addition information, description, rational, diagrams, photographs, etc. pertaining to the changes might be useful to the instructors to meet course requirements.

Mr. Oliver offered a motion to adopt the report and Mr. Pace seconded the motion.

The motion was approved with a vote of 10-0-0. Ayes: Oliver, Redifer, Dyer, Ayres, Bynum-Colman, Tomlin, Magruder, Pace, Middleton, and O'Dell. Nays: None Abstain: None Absent: Trenary, Mitchell, Hux, and Johnson.

Marjorie King provided the Board with a report on the Virginia Water Well Association Annual Conference held in Fredericksburg. The report included information on the education courses taught by board staff and Ms. King's audit of two classes (Motor Carrier Regulations and Solar Powered Well Pumping Systems). No action was required by the Board.

Water Well
Conference
Report

Adrienne Mayo provided the Board with a report on the Education Provider Conference held on February 21, 2019. This was the third of five scheduled conferences to be held during the period 2018 – 2020. Education providers are required to attend at least one conference during that period. No action was required by the Board.

Education
Provider
Conference

Eric Olson provided the Board with a review of the status of all regulatory packages submitted by the Board for Contractors and an update on regulatory review procedures. The public comment period for the Board's proposed regulations adding the miscellaneous specialty concluded with no public comment. This included a public hearing that was held in Richmond on February 7th. Mr. Olson recommended that the Board adopt the proposed regulations as final and submit them for approval.

Regulatory Review

Mr. Oliver made a motion to adopt the Regulations as final seconded Ms. Bynum-Coleman.

The motion was approved with a vote of 10-0-0. Ayes: Oliver, Redifer, Dyer, Ayres, Bynum-Colman, Tomlin, Magruder, Pace, Middleton, and O'Dell. Nays: None Abstain: None Absent: Trenary, Mitchell, Hux, and Johnson.

Mary Broz-Vaughan and Eric Olson provided the Board with a legislative update, including all legislation that would have impacted the Board, the status of the legislation and, if passed, what the Board would be seeing with regards to regulatory and procedural changes. The Board was informed that legislation was passed to create a certification program for fire sprinkler inspectors and that, once signed by the Governor, would result in the commencement of the regulatory review process to amend both the Board for Contractors Regulations and the Board for Contractors Individual License and Certification Regulations. No action was required by the Board.
