A. Determining the Child's Eligibility Before Legal Adoption

1. Basic Eligibility

The child must be:

a. under 18 years of age;

b. in the custody of a local Department of Social services or licensed, private child placing agency at the time the petition for adoption is filed; and

c. placed by the local Department of Social Services or licensed, private child placing agency with the prospective adoptive family for the purpose of adoption, except for those situations in which the child has resided for 18 months with foster parents who file a petition for adoption under Section 63.2-1229.

A2. Determining the child's eligibility for subsidy that the child has special needs.

- 1. In determining the child's eligibility for subsidy before legal adoption, the The agency or child-placing agency shall determine that:
- a. Determine that the child is a child with special needs. A special needs child is any child in the custody of an agency or child-placing agency who is free for adoption, but unlikely to be adopted within a reasonable time due to one or more of the following conditions including, but not limited to:
- a. The child cannot be returned home because parental rights are terminated.
- b. The child has individual characteristics which make the child hard to place for adoption due to one or more of the following:
- (1) Physical, mental, or emotional condition existing before legal adoption;
- (2) Hereditary tendency, congenital problem or birth injury that could lead to a future disability, verified by a medical/psychological statement;
- (3) Is six years of age or older;
- (4) Is a member of a minority or mixed racial heritage;
- (5) Is a member of a sibling group that should not be separated; and
- (6) Has significant emotional ties with foster parents with whom the child has resided for at least 12 months; when the adoption is in the best interest of the child and when the subsidy is necessary to consummate the adoption by these foster parents.
- bc. Make reasonable efforts to first place Reasonable efforts have been made to place the child with appropriate adoptive parents without subsidy. A reasonable effort:
- (1) Shall be made except when it would be against the best interest of the child because

- of factors such as the existence of significant emotional ties with foster parents;
- (2) Shall be considered made if the child has been registered with AREVA and featured in the photolisting.÷
- (a) Local recruitment efforts have been undertaken and documented; or
- (b) Requirements for registration with AREVA have been met; and
- (c) The child has been featured in the AREVA photo-listing for a period of 30 days or other special recruitment efforts have been undertaken by AREVA and an appropriate family has not been identified for the child.
- 2. In order for a child to be eligible after legal adoption:
- B. Determining the Child's Eligibility After Legal Adoption
- A1. The child must have a physical, mental or emotional condition that was present at the time of adoptive placement; or
- B2. The need for subsidy results from a hereditary tendency, congenital problem, or birth injury; and
- C3. In either both a1 or and b2 no more than one year has elapsed since the diagnosis was made, there is a medical or psychological diagnosis that is not more than 12 months old.
- BC. Determining the type of agreement for which the child is eligible. The types of subsidy for which a child can be eligible are:
- 1. A federal or state subsidy. This type of subsidy is used for children whose foster care expenses are paid from federal and state funds. A federal/state subsidy agreement shall be executed for any special needs child who meets eligibility requirements for AFDC or SSI.

- 2. A state subsidy. This type of subsidy is used for children whose foster care expenses are paid from state and local Comprehensive Services Act pool funds.
- 3. A conditional subsidy:
- a. Shall be provided for any child with special needs, whose foster care expenses are paid from state and local Comprehensive Services Act pool funds, when payments and services are not needed at the time of placement but may be needed later. It is granted upon the request of the adoptive parents when a child:
- (1) Has a physical, mental or emotional disability at the time of placement;
- (2) Has a hereditary tendency, congenital problem or birth injury;
- (3) Could develop emotional or other problems resulting from separation from birth parents, placement in foster care, or adoption;
- (4) May need help later with daily living expenses.
- b. Does not involve money payments or services. It is an agreement that allows the adoptive parent or parents to apply for a state or local subsidy after the final order of adoption;
- c. Does not require that reasonable efforts first be made to place the child with an appropriate family without subsidy;
- dc. Commits the agency to providing a state subsidy when the adoptive parent or parents apply, if it is determined that the need is related to one of the conditions described in subdivision 3 a of this subsection;
- ed. Does not require annual certification.

CD. Determining the types of payment to be made. Adoption assistance payments must be negotiated with the adoptive family taking into consideration the needs of the child and the circumstances of the family. In considering the family's circumstances, income shall not be the sole factor. Family and community resources must be explored to help defray the costs of adoption assistance.

There are three types of payment which shall be made on behalf of a child who is eligible for subsidy. The amount of payments made and services provided shall not exceed what would have been paid or provided had the child remained in foster care. The types of payment include:

- 1. Maintenance payments:
- a. A maintenance payment shall be approved for all children who are eligible for subsidy, except those for whom a conditional subsidy will be provided, unless the adoptive parent or parents indicate that a payment is not needed or it is determined through negotiation that the payment is not needed.
- b. The amount of the payment shall be negotiated with the adoptive parents taking into consideration the needs of the child and circumstances of the adoptive parents.
- c. The negotiated maintenance rate shall be approved by the department prior to signing the Adoption Assistance Agreement.
- dc. Maintenance payments shall not be reduced lower than the amount specified in the initial subsidy agreement, unless requested by the adoptive parents.
- ed. Increases in the amount of payment shall be made when the child is receiving the maximum allowable basic maintenance payment and:

- (1) A child reaches a higher age grouping, as specified in foster care policy for maintenance payments;
- (2) Statewide increases are approved for foster care maintenance payments.
- fe. Payments shall be made directly to the adoptive parent or parents on a monthly basis.
- 2. Special service payments:
- a. A special service payment is used to help in meeting the child's physical, mental, emotional, or non-routine dental needs. The special service payment must be directly related to the child's individual characteristic that makes the child hard to place or a physical, mental or emotional condition that existed at the time of placement but was not identified before the final order of adoption.
- b. Types of expenses that are appropriate to be paid include:
- (1) Medical, surgical, or dental;
- (2) Equipment such as prosthetics, braces, crutches, hearing aids, eyeglasses, etc;
- (3) Individual tutoring or remedial educational sessions, books or equipment;
- (4) Psychological and psychiatric evaluations and treatment;
- (5) Speech, physical, and occupational therapy;
- (6) Premiums for a major medical insurance policy for a child, if the child is not covered by a family policy.; and
- (7) Special services provided directly to the child by the adoptive parents. These are services provided by the parent to meet the special needs of a child. They are distinct from basic maintenance and supervision. The parents shall be qualified by experience or specific training to perform such services. This item may be paid in addition to a maintenance payment.

- c. Special service payments may be provided, at the discretion of the agency, for other services needed to maintain the same level of service that the child received in foster care.
- d. A special service payment may be used for children eligible for Title XIX and the Social Services Block Grant (SSBG) to supplement expenses not covered by mMedicaid or when SSBG funds are not available or do not provide adequate coverage.
- e. Payments for special services are negotiated with the adoptive parents taking into consideration:
- (1) The special needs of the child:
- (2) Alternative resources available to fully or partially defray the cost of meeting the child's special needs; and
- (3) The circumstances of the adoptive family. In considering the family's circumstances, income shall not be the sole factor.
- f. Special service payments may be made directly to the providers of service or through the adoptive parents. A bill or receipt shall be submitted before payment. The agency shall not be responsible for bills or receipts submitted later than six months after the end of the month in which the service was rendered.
- g. Providers shall be approved according to requirements for purchase of service specified by the Department of Social Services The rate of payment shall not exceed the prevailing community rate.

3. One time only payments:

Adoptive parents shall be reimbursed, upon request, for the nonrecurring expenses of adopting a special needs child with special needs.

- a. Nonrecurring expenses shall include:
- (1) Attorney fees directly related to the finalization of the adoption, not to exceed a reasonable rate set by the Department of Social Services;
- (2) Transportation and other expenses incurred by adoptive parents related to placement of the child. Expenses may be paid for more than one visit;
- (3) Court costs related to filing an adoption petition; and
- (4) Reasonable and necessary fees of adoption child placing agencies, not to exceed a reasonable rate set by the Department of Social Services.
- b. An adoption assistance agreement shall be signed and shall specify the services to be provided under this section.
- c. Payment of nonrecurring expenses may begin as soon as the adoption assistance agreement has been signed and the child is placed in the adoptive home. Payment may be made directly to providers of service or to the adoptive parents for expenses they have incurred.
- d. A bill or receipt shall be submitted before payment can be made. The agency shall not be responsible for bills or receipts submitted later than six months after the end of the month in which the expense was incurred.

DE. Applying for subsidy.

1. Procedures for the child whose eligibility is established before legal adoption.

- a. The adoption assistance agreement:
- (1) Shall be executed within 90 days of receipt of the application for adoption assistance;
- (2) Shall be signed before entry of the final order of adoption;
- (3) Shall specify the amount of payment and the services to be provided, including Title XIX and SSBG services;
- (4) May be adjusted with the concurrence of the adoptive parents, in the event of changes in the needs of the child;
- (5) Shall remain in effect regardless of the state of which the adoptive parents are residents at any given time; and
- (6) The interests of the child shall be protected through the Interstate Compact on Adoption and Medical Assistance, should the adoptive parents and child move to another state while the agreement is effective.
- 2. Procedures for the child whose eligibility is established after legal adoption.
 The application procedures are the same as for the child whose eligibility is established before adoption except:
- a. The application shall be submitted within one year of the a diagnosis;
- b. The application shall be for a state subsidy.
- EF. Maintaining responsibility.
- 1. The adoptive parent or parents shall:
- a. Submit annually to the agency or child placing agency an affidavit which certifies that:
- (1) The child for whom they are receiving subsidy remains in their care;

- (2) They are legally responsible for supporting the child; and, if applicable,
- (3) The child's condition requiring subsidy continues to exist.
- b. Submit copies of all bills or receipts for special service payments made directly to the adoptive parents.
- 2. The agency or child-placing agency shall:
- a. Maintain responsibility for any payment or services identified in the agreement, regardless of where the family resides;
- ab. Inform prospective adoptive parents of the child's eligibility for subsidy. This shall include a full disclosure of the services and payments for which the child is or may be eligible;
- bc. Notify adoptive parent or parents who are receiving subsidy that the annual affidavit is due. The notification shall be sent to the adoptive parent or parents two months before the affidavit is due;
- ed. Inform adoptive parent or parents, in writing, that they have the right to appeal decisions relating to the child's eligibility for subsidy and decisions relating to payments and services to be provided.
- EG. Terminating the subsidy agreement. The Adoption Assistance Agreement:
- 1. Shall be terminated when the child reaches the age of 18 unless the child has:
- a. A physical or mental disability; or
- b. An educational delay resulting from a physical or mental disability. This shall include educational delays resulting from a child's foster care circumstances. The maintenance payment may be continued for a child who is turning 18 during his/her senior year of school, if the child is expected to graduate by the end of school year in which he/she turns 18.

- c. If a child has one of the conditions in a and b above, the agreement shall be continued until the child reaches the age of 21;
- 2. Shall not be terminated before the child's 18th birthday without the consent of the adoptive parents unless;
- a. It is determined that the child is no longer receiving financial support from the adoptive parents; or
- b. The adoptive parent or parents are no longer legally responsible for the child; or
- c. The child's condition requiring subsidy no longer exists.
- 3. Shall not be terminated if the child's condition improves but could deteriorate again. In this case, the agreement shall be suspended without a payment, rather than terminated.
- 4. When a child receiving adoption subsidy enters foster care or physical custody becomes the responsibility of the state, the local agency may renegotiate the adoption assistance agreement with the adoptive parent(s). Any renegotiated adoption assistance agreement must receive concurrence from all parties to the agreement.

H. Appeals

- Adoptive applicants and adoptive parents shall have the right to appeal adoption subsidy/assistance decisions related to:
- a. The lack of or shortage of subsidy/ adoption assistance because the agency failed to present to adoptive parents relevant facts known by the agency regarding the child prior to adoption finalization;

- b. Failure of the agency to inform the parents of the child's eligibility for subsidy/adoption assistance;
- c. Agency decisions related to the child's eligibility for subsidy/adoption assistance, subsidy payments and services, and changing or terminating a subsidy agreement; and
 d. Failure of the agency to comply with State laws, policies, and procedures for approving adoptive homes.
- 2. Appeals shall be processed in accordance with procedures established by the Virginia Board of Social Services.
