

Unified Regulatory Plan of the Office of the State Inspector General for State Fiscal Year 2023

Prepared: October 2022

Description of Agency or Boards

The Office of the State Inspector General (OSIG) was established on July 1, 2012 to investigate waste and identify inefficiencies in executive branch state government. Title 2.2 Chapter 3.2 §2.2-307 through 2.2-213 of the Code of Virginia outlines the authority, responsibilities, powers and duties of OSIG, which include:

- Investigating complaints alleging fraud, waste, abuse or corruption by an executive branch state agency, non-state agency or officers, employees or contractors of those agencies.
- Administering the Fraud and Abuse Whistle Blower Reward Fund.
- Overseeing the State Fraud, Waste and Abuse Hotline.
- Conducting performance audits of state agencies.
- Providing training and coordination of standards for the state’s internal audit functions.
- Performing inspections and conducting reviews of Healthcare Compliance Unit facilities and programs.
- Reviewing operations of the Virginia Tobacco Region Revitalization Commission.

OSIG does not anticipate any regulatory action or guidance document for the upcoming fiscal year (FY 2023).
