Board Member & Chair Comments

Mr. Santana appreciated the presentations by Cathy Pemberton and Jim Schuyler and their faithfulness in attending the Board meetings and providing informative updates.

Ms. Brennan feels honored to be on the Board and is amazed at how involved social services are in everyone's lives not just the little and older ones.

Mr. Willis welcomed the new Board members and also thanked Cathy Pemberton and Jim Schuyler for their presentations.

Ms. Washington welcomed the new members and thanked them for taking the time to serve. She thanked the Commissioner for providing updates on the big four. She feels she is a better advocate and a better Board member because of this information. She begins school tomorrow and feels she receives a lot of information here and it will help her in her classes.

Dr. Avula welcomed the new members to the Board. He was appreciative for the presentations and encouraged the new members to take the time to learn more about the agency.

Mr. Jordan thanked everyone for the opportunity to serve as the Chair and noted the work of DSS employees touches one out of every five Virginians. He expressed his thanks to the local directors and all the hard work they do.

Ms. Ali felt that Mr. Jordan has done a good job serving as Chair. She welcomed the new members and was pleased of the approval of Fostering Futures. She expressed her gratitude for being able to serve on the Board and felt it made her a better citizen.

Ms. Boyd appreciated how warmly she had been greeted and felt honored to be requested to serve. She appreciated hearing about the big four and it gave her a better insight of what is done. She learned a lot at her first meeting and thanked everyone for all the information. Ms. Boyd thanked Mr. Jordan for the great job as Chair.

Mr. Kines enjoyed meeting everyone and the information obtained and he was very impressed with the presentations. From working at the local level and being present at the meeting, he understands how the work comes together.

Meeting adjourned at 2:25 PM.
