Minutes

The motion was approved with a vote of 14-0-0. Ayes: Dyer, Oliver, Redifer, Ayres, Magruder, Groh, King, Middleton, Trenary, Hux, Johnson, Plummer, Bynum-Coleman, and Tomlin. Nays: None Abstain: None Absent: Mitchell and O'Dell.

4b. Chairman, Dyer opened the Public Comment section of the meeting.

Public Comment
Period

Mark Johnson addressed the Board regarding the availability of information to the public with regards to a complaint against a contractor. Mr. Johnson read Paragraph 4 of the DPOR Director's Policy #100-04 dated June 5, 2017, which states

"Open complaints may be publically acknowledged when a Department investigation has determined that sufficient evidence exists to establish probable cause that there was a violation of law or regulation; however, the case file is exempt from disclosure until case closure."

Eric Olson, Executive Director, explained the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act and when complaint information is made available to the public, including when the fact that there is a case is made public as well as the availability of the case file once a case has been adjudicated.

Kimberly Oberg with Merit spoke about Merit and what their company has to offer.

Merit is an online credentialing service that issues digital versions of licenses and certificates to individuals who choose to participate. Starting in early fall of 2019, DPOR will streamline professional licensing across Virginia. As legislated in the 2019 Session of the General Assembly. DPOR will partner with online credentialing service Merit to drive innovation, digital transformation, and efficiency for all.

Kathy May filed a complaint in 2018. Ms. May felt the complaint and recovery fund process are to complex and burdensome for one individual citizen. She hopes to understand the process more once the case has been heard.

With no one else wishing to come forward Chairman, Dyer closed the Public Comment section.

b) Education Audit

Education Audit

Bill Ferguson provided a report for the pre-license education course he audited on June 29, 2019, by an approved provider, Meridien Group LLC. A handout of the report was distributed to the Board members and Staff present.

Meridien Group LLC

The course to be audited was titled Contractor Pre-License Education. The title, time, and location were on the education provider's internet-site. Date, time and location of the course had been submitted to the Board for Contractors as part of the education provider's application and placed on the Board's calendar. The website was checked on June 28, 2019 and July 1, 2019.

Staff arrived at the facility at 8:40 a.m. At 9:00 a.m., which was the time the course was scheduled to begin, Board staff did not see any signage, education provider personnel, or attendees pertaining to the course. The door to the course location was locked.

At 10:00 a.m. Board staff conducted a second check of facility. Board staff did not see any signage, education provider personnel, or attendees pertaining to the course. The door to the course location was locked. Board staff left at 10:05 a.m.

Board staff reviewed the education provider's website on June 28, 2019 and July 1, 2019. On both occasions, the education provider's website listed a contractor pre-license education class for June 29, 2019, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. in Leesburg, VA.

A course attendance roster has not been received by the Board for Contractors for a class held on June 29,

It seems that the Meridien Group LLC has not conducted a contractor pre-license education class since the approval of the education provider's course by the Board for Contractors on March 5, 2019.

Bill Ferguson provided a report for the pre-license education course he audited on July 8, 2019, by an approved provider, Kruger's Training Academy - 16-Hour Backflow Course. A handout of the report was distributed to the Board members and Staff present.

Kruger's

Backflow Course

On July 11, 2018, the staff of the Board for Contractors audited a 16-hour Backflow Prevention Device Worker vocational class given by an approved provider, Kruger's Training Academy.

This audit was a follow-up audit based on the recommendations of an audit conducted on March 5, 2018. This was an unannounced audit as the provider was not aware that Board Staff would be in attendance. Board Staff in attendance was Bill Ferguson.

The course audited was titled "Backflow Worker Certification (16 hours)". The course was held at the location on the date the provider had submitted to the Board for Contractors.

Staff arrived at the facility at 7:45 a.m., entered through the showroom, and went to the classroom. Staff had audited the 40-hour Backflow Prevention Device Worker vocational class on July 8, 2019, therefore, identification as Board staff was not requested.

The audit was conducted from 8:00 a.m. until 4:00 p.m. with scheduled breaks and lunch. The instructor demonstrated a high knowledge of the subject. He was well organized and presented the information in a clear manner. Throughout the day he interacted comfortably with the attendees and kept the attendees engaged.

The instructor provided examples of the subject matter and answered questions when asked.

During the audit, the instructor covered the subjects that were submitted on the Course Outline that had been submitted to the Board for Contractors for approval

Class was in compliance with education provider requirements.
