Leon W. Strosnider

In reference to File Number 2004-04092, Leon W. Strosnider, the Board members reviewed the record of the Informal Fact-Finding Conference, which consisted of the investigative file, transcripts and exhibits, and Summary of the Informal Fact-Finding Conference by the presiding Board member, as well as the presentations made by Mr. Strosnider and Mr. Luttrell. After consideration, Mr. Motley moved to accept the violation of Count 1 as recommended in the Summary of the Informal Fact-Finding Conference, which cites a violation of 18 VAC 25-21-110.1.a of the Board's 2002 regulations. Ms. Pence seconded the motion which was unanimously approved by members: Motley, Pence, and Perkinson. Mr. Motley moved to accept the violation of Count 2 as recommended in the Summary of the Informal Fact-Finding Conference, which cites a violation of 18 VAC 25-21-110.2 of the Board's 2002 regulations. Ms. Pence seconded the motion which was unanimously approved by members: Motley, Pence, and Perkinson. Mr. Motley moved to accept the violation of Count 3 as recommended in the Summary of the Informal Fact-Finding Conference, which cites a violation of 18 VAC 25-21-110.6 of the Board's 2002 regulations. Ms. Pence seconded the motion which was unanimously approved by members: Motley, Pence, and Perkinson. Mr. Motley moved to accept the violation of Count 4 as recommended in the Summary of the Informal Fact-Finding Conference, which cites a violation of 18 VAC 25-21-110.7 of the Board's 2002 regulations. Ms. Pence seconded the motion which was unanimously approved by members: Motley, Pence, and Perkinson. Mr. Motley moved to accept the violation of Count 5 as recommended in the Summary of the Informal Fact-Finding Conference, which cites a violation of 18 VAC 25-21-180.A.4 of the Board's 2002 regulations. Ms. Pence seconded the motion which was unanimously approved by members: Motley, Pence, and Perkinson.

File Number 2004-

After Ms. Perkins indicated that there have been no prior disciplinary actions against Mr. Strosnider, Mr. Motley moved to amend the recommended sanctions contained in the Summary of the Informal Fact-Finding Conference and impose a monetary penalty of $200 for each of the violations in Counts 1, 2, 3, and 4, and a monetary penalty of $500 for the violation in Count 5, for a total monetary penalty of $1300. Ms. Pence seconded the motion which was unanimously approved by members: Motley, Pence, and Perkinson. As the presiding Board member at the Informal Fact-Finding Conference, Mr. Updike was not present during the discussion or votes.

Randy A. Fiel, respondent, and his counsel, Claude M. Scialdone, were present regarding File Numbers 2003-00435, Randy's Auction Gallery. Mr. Scialdone responded to several of the allegations made against Mr. Fiel and his company. Mr. Scialdone indicated that the results of the investigation do not indicate substantial evidence of intent to defraud. Further, Mr. Scialdone indicated that Mr. Fiel's contract has been amended to address concerns raised through this process. As the presiding Board member at the Informal Fact-Finding Conference, Mr. Updike was not present during the presentation.

In reference to File Number 2003-02434, First Guarantee Credit Corp., the Board members reviewed the record of the Informal Fact-Finding Conference, which consisted of the investigative file, transcripts and exhibits, and Summary of the Informal Fact-Finding Conference by the presiding Board member, as well as correspondence dated January File Number 2003-02434, First Guarantee Credit Corp.

20, 2005, submitted by August Bequai, counsel for the respondent. The letter from Mr. Bequai indicated that he and Azam M. Khan, president of First Guarantee Credit Corp. had intended to be present at the meeting, but inclement weather had prevented them from traveling to Richmond. As such, Mr. Bequai requested that a decision on this matter be continued to the next meeting should the Board decide that it needed a representative for the respondent present. Mr. Motley moved to move forward with consideration of this matter as the Board does not find it necessary for the respondent to be present, and because the Board is required by law to render a decision within 90 days of the Informal Fact-Finding Conference. Further, Mr. Motley moved to accept the Summary of the Informal Fact-Finding Conference as to the facts and find First Guarantee Credit Corp. in violation of 18 VAC 25-21-180.A.3 of the Board's 2002 regulations. Ms. Pence seconded the motion which was unanimously approved by members: Motley, Pence, and Perkinson.

After Ms. Perkins stated that this company had no prior disciplinary actions by the Board, Mr. Motley moved to amend the sanction in order to be consistent with the action imposed by the Wisconsin Board in this matter and impose the following: suspension of the auctioneer license for First Guarantee Credit Corp. for a period of 2 years. The suspension shall be stayed if, during the two-year period of suspension, First Guarantee Credit Corp. does not violate any of the regulations of the Virginia Auctioneers Board, or any other local, state or national auctioneer regulatory body. If a violation occurs, First Guarantee Credit Corp.'s Virginia license may be fined, suspended, or revoked, subsequent to Board review. Ms. Pence seconded the motion which was unanimously approved by members: Motley, Pence, and Perkinson. As the presiding Board member at the Informal Fact-Finding Conference, Mr. Updike was not present during the discussion or votes.

Regarding File Number 2004-02962, Zedd Auctioneers, the Board members reviewed the Consent Order as seen and agreed to by Zedd Auctioneers. Mr. Motley moved to accept the Consent Order, which cites the following: violation of 18 VAC 25-21-110.2 and a monetary penalty of $50 (Count 1); and 18 VAC 25-21-150.C and a monetary penalty of $500 (Count 2), for a total monetary penalty of $550. Ms. Pence seconded the motion which was unanimously approved by members: Motley, Pence, and Perkinson. As the presiding Board member at the Informal Fact-Finding Conference, Mr. Updike was not present during the discussion or vote.

reviewed the Consent Order as seen and agreed to by Mr. Martin. Ms. Pence moved to accept the Consent Order, which cites a violation of 18 VAC 25-21-180.A.3 and imposes no sanction for this violation. Mr. Motley seconded the motion which was unanimously approved by members: Motley, Pence, and Perkinson. As the presiding Board member at the Informal Fact-Finding Conference, Mr. Updike was not present during the discussion or vote.

02960, Roy Martin

Regarding File Number 2004-01482, James Winstead, the Board members reviewed the Consent Order as seen and agreed to by Mr. Winstead. Mr. Motley moved to accept the Consent Order, which cites a violation of 18 VAC 25-21-180.A.3 and imposes no sanction for this violation. Ms. Pence seconded the motion which was unanimously approved by members: Motley, Pence, and Perkinson. As the presiding Board member at the Informal Fact-Finding Conference, Mr. Updike was not present during the discussion or vote.

File Number 2004-01482, James Winstead

In reference to File Number 2004-00246, Kurt Earlywine, the Board members reviewed the record of the Informal Fact-Finding Conference, which consisted of the investigative file, transcripts and exhibits, and Summary of the Informal Fact-Finding Conference by the presiding Board member. Mr. Motley moved to accept the Summary of the Informal Fact-Finding Conference as to the facts and find a violation of 18 VAC 25-21-180.A.3 of the Board's 2002 regulations. Ms. Pence seconded the motion which was unanimously approved by members: Motley, Pence, and Perkinson.

File Number 2004-00246, Kurt Earlywine

After Ms. Perkins stated there were no previous disciplinary actions involving Mr. Earlywine, Mr. Motley moved to amend the Summary of the Informal Fact-Finding Conference as to the sanctions and impose the following: monetary penalty of $1500 and suspension of Mr. Earlywine's auctioneer license for a period of 3 years. The suspension shall be stayed if, during the 3-year period of suspension, Mr. Earlywine does not violate any of the regulations of the Virginia Auctioneers Board, or any other local, state or national auctioneer regulatory body. If a violation occurs, Mr. Earlywine's Virginia license may be fined, suspended, or revoked, pending Board review. Ms. Pence seconded the motion which was unanimously approved by members: Motley, Pence, and Perkinson.

In reference to File Number 2004-00840, Donald Sparks, the Board members reviewed the record of the Informal Fact-Finding Conference, which consisted of the investigative file, transcripts and exhibits, and Summary of the Informal Fact-Finding Conference by the presiding Board member. Mr. Motley moved to accept the recommendation contained in the Summary of the Informal Fact-Finding Conference and close the file with a finding of no violation. Ms. Pence seconded the motion which was unanimously approved by members: Motley, Pence, and Perkinson. As the presiding Board member at the Informal Fact-Finding Conference, Mr. Updike was not present during the discussion or vote.

Mr. Updike returned to the meeting and resumed as Chair.

Transfer of Chair

Mr. Courtney provided an update on the status of the draft regulations previously adopted by the Board to address continuing education requirements.

Update on Status of Regulations

The Board members were provided with a draft report to be submitted to the National Auctioneer License Law Officials Association (NALLOA). The Board members agreed by consensus to have staff submit the report.

Review of NALLOA Report

The Board members were provided with the November 2004 financial statements for informational purposes.

Review Financial Statements

Ms. Brooks provided the Board members with the 2002-2004 DPOR Biennial Report.

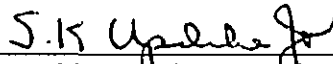

Other Business

The Board members were also provided with House Bills 2155 and 2078, which are being considered in the current session of the General Assembly and may affect auctioneering.

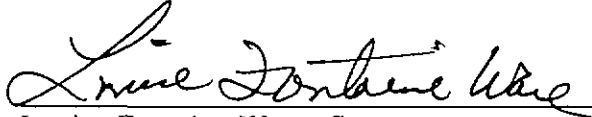

Conflict of Interest forms were completed by all members present.
