

Agency Response
Board of Psychology
Department of Health Professions

The Board of Psychology concurs with the Economic Impact Analysis of the Department of Planning and Budget for proposed amendments to Regulations Governing the Practice of Psychology to allow additional graduate level courses be used to satisfy educational requirements for a license as an applied psychologist.