APPROVAL OF MINUTES

Because there was no quorum present, Mr. Green informed members that the draft minutes from the September 10, 2013 meeting would be considered at the next Board meeting.

REPORT FROM BOARD MEMBERS

There was no report from any member.

PROGRAM MANAGER'S REPORT

Mr. Green asked Mr. Menefee for an operational update on the Office of Charitable and Regulatory Programs. Mr. Menefee reported the following to the members:

- The Office of Charitable and Regulatory Programs (OCRCP) recently hired Ms. Alison Foster as an Investigator, Mr. Roger Agbati as a Licensing and Registration Analyst, and Ms. Laura Hare as a Licensing and Registration Analyst. Mr. Menefee welcomed them to the team.
- An update on the hiring of two charitable gaming inspectors.
- Since September, Ms. Kay Cholko, Gaming Coach, conducted nine training sessions with charitable gaming organizations and OCRCP received positive feedback on the sessions from those organizations.
- In November, OCRCP permitted Pen-Tech Associates, Inc. as a manufacturer of electronic pull-tab systems. In total, seven manufacturers are licensed by OCRCP. At the end of November, there were approximately 137 locations utilizing 464 electronic pull-tab devices. According to the manufacturers, in total this year, the devices generated more than $85 million in gross receipts.

NEW BUSINESS

Because there was no quorum present, Mr. Green informed members that any new business before the Board would be considered at the next Board meeting.

NEXT BOARD MEETING

Mr. Green informed members that the next Board meeting will be held on Tuesday, March 11, 2014, in the offices of the Virginia Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services, in Richmond, Virginia.

PUBLIC COMMENT

Mr. Matt Benka (Virginia Charitable Bingo Association) commented that discussions were held with various officials regarding funding for the Office of Charitable and Regulatory Programs.

There being no further business, the Board adjourned at 10:20 a.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Roz Trent
